

$2,741,503.34 Spent By G.O.P. Committee In Harding Campaign

Expenditures Cover Period From June 14 to October 18, During Which Time Receipts Were $2,466,019.54.

34,867 CONTRIBUTORS TO THE CAMPAIGN FUND

Only Sixteen Contributions in Excess of $1,000. The Hamilton Club, of Chicago, Appears as the Largest Single Contributor.

WILLIAMS SCORED BY THE BANKERS FOR HIS ATTACK

Resolutions Adopted Deploring Utterances of Comptroller as Destructive of Public Confidence.

CHARGES REITERATED BY THE COMPTROLLER

He Declares Defense of Alleged Acts of Bankers in New York Is Feeble. Federal Reserve System Indorsed by Bankers.

Washington, October 22.—The sum of $2,466,019.54 has been collected by Treasurer Fred W. Upham, of the republican national committee, while $2,741,503.34 has been disbursed between June 14 and October 18 of this year, according to sworn statements required by law, which Upham has just filed with the clerk of the house of representatives here.

Saturday will be the last day for filing under the terms of the law. Up to a late hour on Friday the democratic national committee had not been heard from.

Statement by Committee.

A statement made by the republican national committee says:

"The contributors to the republican fund for this period number 34,867, and the detailed list shows only 16 contributions in excess of $1,000, aggregating $28,750. The largest single contribution was from the Hamilton Club of Chicago, whose members subscribed the sum of $6,120.50. Other contributions, as set down in detail, range from 25 cents to $1,000 and cover the entire country."

Created Hostilities.

The resolution declared that "if such misleading inferences were made for personal gratification or political gain, it would be too severely condemned." It added that the "utterances" complained of had created an "unfounded hostility" between bankers and the public and deplored such a destruction of public confidence.

Coincidentally with adoption of

Continued on Page 5, Column 3.

Raving MacSwiney Vainly Opposes Force Feeding

"Take It Away," He Cries, As Doctors Force Nourishment Into His Mouth. He Is at Point of Death.

London, October 22.—The Exchange telegraph announces that it has been informed that Lord May or MacSwiney is at the point of death.

Lord MacSwiney, the Irish republican, has died, but he did not recognize his friends.

Mayor MacSwiney, says the night bulletin of the Irish Self-Determination league, had a violent, but short attack of delirium at 7 o'clock this evening after which he slept. Mrs. MacSwiney was with him all day, but he did not recognize her.

An earlier bulletin said the lord mayor was delirious this morning, and the prison authorities continued to force food in his mouth in spite of his protests.

The lord mayor becomes conscious at intervals, the bulletin said, but is unable to recognize relatives or his surroundings. For a short time last night his delirium again became violent.

Raves of Irish Republic.

"He went to sleep for an hour," continued the bulletin. "At 4:45 o'clock he seemed to be rallying to his senses, but relapsed almost immediately. This occurred again between 7 and 8 o'clock, when his sister Anne was with him. He suddenly asked what were the month and the year, where he was and was the Irish republic established, and the government again became conscious.

"He seemed as if he might recognize his sister, but he became delirious again, muttering, 'We did some grand marching during the night; we were marching as well, but we beat them; it's glorious.'

The prison authorities continue to force food into his mouth. About 8:30 this morning a nurse held a spoon of meat juice to his lips, but he muttered, 'No, no, take it away.' The performance was repeated twice when his head fell back from exhaustion and the spoon was inserted in his mouth."

Only Partially Conscious.

The Central News says MacSwiney was only partially conscious this morning, having passed a very bad night. It declares a doctor again administered liquid food, and that subsequently the lord mayor became violently ill and was thrown into an exhausted condition.

The league's mid-afternoon bulletin stated that Mayor MacSwiney had been in a more or less semi-conscious condition all morning.

"He recognized his sister Mary, but no one else," the bulletin added.

The delirium continued at intervals in a more extreme form. He now is calm."

GOVERNOR DORSEY ASKED FOR HELP IN LIQUOR FIGHT

Making and Selling of Booze Reaching Intolerable Stage in Clinch County," Asserts Police Chief R. S. Williams.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN DECLARED SUFFERING

Governor Will Probably Request County Officers to Aid—No Decision Yet Made on the Savannah Situation.

Declarer that the making and selling of whisky in Clinch county is reaching such an intolerable stage that the women and children are suffering and that something must be done to relieve the situation. Chief of Police R. S. Williams, of Homerville, Ga., appealed to Governor Hugh M. Dorsey Friday afternoon for immediate aid in the enforcement of federal and state prohibitory laws.

This appeal to the governor is the second received during the past two weeks for state assistance in enforcing prohibition. Mayor Murray Stewart, of Savannah, writing the chief executive October 10, that as head of the state, "I put the question squarely up to you and would request that you direct the attention of every official over whom you may have supervisory or mandatory powers" that the laws be rigidly enforced.

Eagle Sheriff to Act.

Governor Dorsey told The Constitution last night, when asked what steps he could take to aid the chief of police of Homerville, that he could request the sheriff and other county officials of Clinch county to co-operate with the city officials in stamping out the illicit traffic of liquor, and that, so far as he knew, this was all the action he could take.

When the governor was asked if he would take similar action regarding the Savannah appeal, in which it was stated whisky was unquestionably being brought through the waterways of the country, he replied he had not yet reached a decision concerning the case and did not know what steps he would take.

But the governor's phase is the belief that the out-and-out Reds have seized what they regard as the most favorable moment to make a final effort to frighten a government which refuses to be frightened.

The miners and railway men realize that their defeat would irretrievably damage the cause of union labor and shatter its prestige.

At the same time, radicals argued that the "kill or cure" method would shorten the length of the strike and thus "benefit all labor."

"Reds" Believe at Work.

But the question is then asked: "What is the belief that the out-and-out Reds have seized what they regard as the most favorable moment to make a final effort to frighten a government which refuses to be frightened?"

The Savannah case is different from that of Homerville, in that the mayor of the seaport city is seeking information as to the function of the county and state in the enforcement of prohibition laws, with the inference being made that "there seems to be a disposition to throw the blame on city officials of the practically unchecked traffic."

Savannah Situation.

The whisky is landed from water-tugs miles from Savannah, according to the mayor, and brought to the city in bulk. It is also raised occasionally in the county only a small source of the liquor is destroyed.

The question is then asked: "What is the belief that the out-and-out Reds have seized what they regard as the most favorable moment to make a final effort to frighten a government which refuses to be frightened?"

The Savannah case is different from that of Homerville, in that the mayor of the seaport city is seeking information as to the function of the county and state in the enforcement of prohibition laws, with the inference being made that "there seems to be a disposition to throw the blame on city officials of the practically unchecked traffic."

Chief Williams, in his letter to Governor Dorsey, does not give detailed information concerning the situation in the city, but states "the masking, selling and drinking of moonshine is awful and something must be done to stop the suffering of women and children. I appeal to you as Governor of Georgia to help me stamp out the traffic."

The question is then asked: "What is the belief that the railroad men would rescind the strike order, in compliance with a request by the trades union congress, which announces its intention of meeting next week to consider the general strike?"

Dangerous Situation.

The government concedes that 40 percent of the railway men will walk out, but insists that the roads may still be operated satisfactorily with those men who remain at work, ignoring the orders of the radical leaders.

Alleged Affinity, Who Was Arrested After Fight With Husband, Must Spend One Day in Dark Cell.

Two Blind Men And Blind Wife In Love Triangle

Alleged Affinity, Who Was Arrested After Fight With Husband, Must Spend One Day in Dark Cell.

Love is blind.

Martin Stone is blind; Mrs. Martin Stone is stone blind; so, moreover and eternally is Sam Stewart. Platitudinous and commonplace enough until you hear that Johnson was forced to hear Friday afternoon that Stewart had made violent physical assault—not on—Stewart because he, Stewart, had heard Stewart was paying fact, Stone found Stewart at the Strong's Thurman street home and there's where the racket occurred.

It was something like this:

Strong was out in the city purusing his daily toll of selling pamphlets, when some friend of the sightless family informed him that Stewart was devotedly visiting the stone-blind Mrs. Stone. Stone has been home and it was there he discovered, through audition, the presence of Stewart. Of course, Stone could not see Stewart plumb and not knowing exactly how the furniture was situated for safety's sake.

This combined set of blind efforts—one destructive and the other protective—continued until most of the furniture had been wrecked.

Upon the declaration of hostilities, Mrs. Stone had groped her way out of the house and had called her husband, who in turn called the police. The police drove up to the sightless abode and found the mass of wreckage and the two blind men grappling at or dodging each other.

Jurisprudence decreed that Stewart must spend one day in the dark cell for his offense.

The press is maintaining an air of caution. It deplores almost unanimously, the provocative nature of the case.

Jurisprudence decreed that Stewart must spend one day in the dark cell for his offense.

The press is maintaining an air of caution. It deplores almost unanimously, the provocative nature of the case.

In response to your appeal in today's Constitution, I am sending

Labor Ultimatum Fails to Frighten British Government

Premier Lloyd-George Reiterates That He Is Open to Negotiation, But Only on Basis of Original Proposals.

POLITICAL CATASTY MAY BE THE OUTCOME

There Is a Suggestion That Out-and-Out Reds Have Seized What They Consider Favorable Moment to Launch Revolutionary Movement.

BY A. E. JOHNSON,
United News Staff Correspondent.
London, October 22.—The nation stands appalled at the brink of an abyss. It is faced with a general strike which, even if only partially successful, will bring chaos and ruin, with the possibility of a political cataclysm following in its wake.

Declarer that the making and selling of whisky in Clinch county is reaching such an intolerable stage that the women and children are suffering and that something must be done to relieve the situation. Chief of Police R. S. Williams, of Homerville, Ga., appealed to Governor Hugh M. Dorsey Friday afternoon for immediate aid in the enforcement of federal and state prohibitory laws.

This appeal to the governor is the second received during the past two weeks for state assistance in enforcing prohibition. Mayor Murray Stewart, of Savannah, writing the chief executive October 10, that as head of the state, "I put the question squarely up to you and would request that you direct the attention of every official over whom you may have supervisory or mandatory powers" that the laws be rigidly enforced.

Eagle Sheriff to Act.

Governor Dorsey told The Constitution last night, when asked what steps he could take to aid the chief of police of Homerville, that he could request the sheriff and other county officials of Clinch county to co-operate with the city officials in stamping out the illicit traffic of liquor, and that, so far as he knew, this was all the action he could take.

When the governor was asked if he would take similar action regarding the Savannah appeal, in which it was stated whisky was unquestionably being brought through the waterways of the country, he replied he had not yet reached a decision concerning the case and did not know what steps he would take.

But the governor's phase is the belief that the out-and-out Reds have seized what they regard as the most favorable moment to make a final effort to frighten a government which refuses to be frightened.

The miners and railway men realize that their defeat would irretrievably damage the cause of union labor and shatter its prestige.

At the same time, radicals argued that the "kill or cure" method would shorten the length of the strike and thus "benefit all labor."

"Reds" Believe at Work.

But the question is then asked: "What is the belief that the out-and-out Reds have seized what they regard as the most favorable moment to make a final effort to frighten a government which refuses to be frightened?"

The Savannah case is different from that of Homerville, in that the mayor of the seaport city is seeking information as to the function of the county and state in the enforcement of prohibition laws, with the inference being made that "there seems to be a disposition to throw the blame on city officials of the practically unchecked traffic."

Savannah Situation.

The whisky is landed from water-tugs miles from Savannah, according to the mayor, and brought to the city in bulk. It is also raised occasionally in the county only a small source of the liquor is destroyed.

The question is then asked: "What is the belief that the railroad men would rescind the strike order, in compliance with a request by the trades union congress, which announces its intention of meeting next week to consider the general strike?"

Dangerous Situation.

The government concedes that 40 percent of the railway men will walk out, but insists that the roads may still be operated satisfactorily with those men who remain at work, ignoring the orders of the radical leaders.

Alleged Affinity, Who Was Arrested After Fight With Husband, Must Spend One Day in Dark Cell.

Two Blind Men And Blind Wife In Love Triangle

Alleged Affinity, Who Was Arrested After Fight With Husband, Must Spend One Day in Dark Cell.

Love is blind.

Martin Stone is stone blind; so, moreover and eternally is Sam Stewart. Platitudinous and commonplace enough until you hear that Johnson was forced to hear Friday afternoon that Stewart had made violent physical assault—not on—Stewart because he, Stewart, had heard Stewart was paying fact, Stone found Stewart at the Strong's Thurman street home and there's where the racket occurred.

It was something like this:

Strong was out in the city purusing his daily toll of selling pamphlets, when some friend of the sightless family informed him that Stewart was devotedly visiting the stone-blind Mrs. Stone. Stone has been home and it was there he discovered, through audition, the presence of Stewart. Of course, Stone could not see Stewart plumb and not knowing exactly how the furniture was situated for safety's sake.

This combined set of blind efforts—one destructive and the other protective—continued until most of the furniture had been wrecked.

Upon the declaration of hostilities, Mrs. Stone had groped her way out of the house and had called her husband, who in turn called the police. The police drove up to the sightless abode and found the mass of wreckage and the two blind men grappling at or dodging each other.

Strong was out in the city purusing his daily toll of selling pamphlets, when some friend of the sightless family informed him that Stewart was devotedly visiting the stone-blind Mrs. Stone. Stone has been home and it was there he discovered, through audition, the presence of Stewart. Of course, Stone could not see Stewart plumb and not knowing exactly how the furniture was situated for safety's sake.

This combined set of blind efforts—one destructive and the other protective—continued until most of the furniture had been wrecked.

Upon the declaration of hostilities, Mrs. Stone had groped her way out of the house and had called her husband, who in turn called the police. The police drove up to the sightless abode and found the mass of wreckage and the two blind men grappling at or dodging each other.

Strong was out in the city purusing his daily toll of selling pamphlets, when some friend of the sightless family informed him that Stewart was devotedly visiting the stone-blind Mrs. Stone. Stone has been home and it was there he discovered, through audition, the presence of Stewart. Of course, Stone could not see Stewart plumb and not knowing exactly how the furniture was situated for safety's sake.

This combined set of blind efforts—one destructive and the other protective—continued until most of the furniture had been wrecked.

Upon the declaration of hostilities, Mrs. Stone had groped her way out of the house and had called her husband, who in turn called the police. The police drove up to the sightless abode and found the mass of wreckage and the two blind men grappling at or dodging each other.

statement and this correction you have failed to make."

Great Crowd Greets Cox.

Governor Cox spoke at the first regiment armory tonight, in which hundreds of an overflow crowd lacked seats. James R. Nugent, who entertained Governor Cox at dinner, introduced the candidate. Taking up his league doctrine, the governor was given a rousing demonstration by the large crowd. He said the league had been endorsed by all religious denominations, and, what in some respects was the most sacred of all, by the "Gold Star Mothers of America."

The Newark audience also cheered and boozed loudly the name of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, when the governor characterized him as the "honestest conspirator in all the history of civilization."

Hundreds rose and cheered when the governor predicted that numer-

"There's a ROGERS store near you"

There are many short cuts to economy

Here's one of them that you should not overlook. Our special package of best grits, 1/2 pounds at 6 cents, is the same quality as package goods that cost you double. Try it.

Best Granulated SUGAR, lb. . . .	12½c
10 Pounds Best Irish Potatoes, . . .	29c
10 Pounds Georgia Yellow Yams, . . .	19c
Best Head RICE New Crop lb. . . .	9½c
Pound Can Pink Salmon	16c

DEL MONTE PINE-APPLE	Del Monte or Libby's Whole Slice, No. 2 Can	33c
	No. 2½, Whole Slice, a 60c Value	39c
	No. 2 Broken Slices	29c
	No. 2½	33c

Fresh Selected Guaranteed Country EGGS	In Patent Carton, doz.	65c
Royal Brooms, a 75c Value	Fancy Lemons, doz.	15c
Fresh Coconuts	New Crop Cranberries, qt.	15c
Pound Can Snowdrift	Pound Can Crisco	27c

MAZOLA	Pints 29c
Salad Oil	Salad Oil

Govt. Bacon	2-lb. Can Govt. Corned Beef	42c
2-lb. Can Govt. Corned Beef Hash	38c	Libby's or St. Charles Evaporated Milk, pts., 13½c; 6½ small	62c

Evaporated Apples, lb.	16c	Plantation Evap. Milk, Tall Can	11c
PURITY BUTTERINE	Cut Your Butter Bill in Half, lb.	34c	Good Creamery Butter	67c
Flint River Syrup, 5 lbs.; 50c; 1½ lbs.	15c	Little Pig Sausage	35c

ROGERS' SATURDAY SPECIAL CANDY CHOCOLATE COVERED CHERRIES	A Delicious Candy 14-oz. Box That Will Be on Sale Only on Saturdays	69c
---	---	-----

ROGERS'	112—Economy Stores—112
---------	------------------------

UNION MEAT Market	15 and 17 WEST ALABAMA STREET
	Phones Main 3144-3145. We Deliver

Fancy Dressed Hens	40c
Leg o' Lamb	40c
Lamb Chops	50c
All-Pork Sausage	35c
Made Out of Hog.	35c

COMMERCE MARKET 20 EDGEWOOD AVE.	20 EDGEWOOD
	NEAR PRYOR

Choice Roast Beef	20c	Leg o' Lamb	35c
Rump Roast	25c	Veal Roast	25c and 30c
Rib Roast	25c	Veal Chops	35c
Round Steak	30c	Veal Steak	40c
Loin Steak	30c	No. 10 Cottonbloom, $1.50
Porterhouse Steak	35c	Best Creamery Butter, 65c
Pork Shoulders	25c	Small Strips B. Bacon, .32c
Pork Hams	35c	Skinned Hams, (whole)	40½c
Pork Chops	45c	Fresh Country Eggs, guaranteed	65c
Strip B. Bacon	35c

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES 20 EDGEWOOD	20 EDGEWOOD
NEAR PRYOR

White House Bakery Co.	35 South Broad, Between Alabama and Hunter
FOR SATURDAY:

Our Extra Good White House Bread	10 and 15c
Our Extra Good Split Rolls	15c
Our Extra Good Whole Wheat Bread	15c
Our Extra Good Raisin Bread	15c
Our Extra Good Rye Bread	15c
Extra Fine Pound Cakes per lb.	40c
Large Assortment Layer Cakes	40 and 75c
Cream Puffs and Chocolate Eclairs, per dozen	50c
Fine Jumbles and Cookies, per dozen	20c
Splendid Small Pies, each	10c
Coffee Cakes	25c
Angel Food, large	75c
Iced Cup Cakes, per dozen	75c

YOU WILL APPRECIATE THE QUALITY OF OUR GOODS
White House Bakery Co.

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1920,

ous republican signer, of a recent round robin would be left at home as a result of the election, "even in Ohio."

Another rising demonstration followed the governor's declaration of a policy toward intervention. "We can't intervene in Mexico, when he said he would not 'coin the blood of a single American soldier into gold for investors in Mexico.'

"There are too many people," he added, "who want American troops to draw their chestnuts out of the fire."

A man in the balcony with lusty Cash Grocery Co.

10 lbs. Net Rex Pure Lard $2.88

Maxwell House 37

Coffee

3-lbs. Net $1.10

18 SOUTH PRYOR ST.

BUEHLER BROS.

114 WHITEHALL ST.

Fancy Lamb Legs, lb. 40c

Extra Nice Sliced Breakfast Bacon 40c

Fresh Dressed Hens 40c

Cornfield and Dover Hams 45c

Beef Roast 20c

Choice Beef Round Roast 30c

Fresh Dressed Chickens 38c

Good Pot Roast 12½-15c

Beef Stew 10c

Leg Veal Roast 30c

Good Veal Roast 15-20c

Veal Chops 20c

Veal Cut 35c

Leg Lamb 35c

Lamb Shoulders 25c

Smoked Picnics 26c

All-Pork Sausage 30c

—COFFEE SPECIALS—

MAXWELL HOUSE 42c

BLUE RIBBON 42c

LUXURIE 42c

Eggs, No. 1 Tennessee, 62c

SUGAR White Granulated 12½c

OMEGA FLOUR 24-lb. Bag $1.89

48-lb. Bag $3.69

Just Arrived

45 E. HUNTER ST.

Bell Phone Main 2186

JOHN G. CATO

BROOKS COUNTY HAM KING

Home of Cato's FAMOUS PORK SAUSAGE

We have some real high-grade Spuds, better known as Irish Taters. Just to show you the way our heart beats, the price is 2c

LIQUOR IS CAUSE OF FIVE ARRESTS

Near-Riot Results From Effort to Collect Alleged Booze Debt on Friday Evening.

A near-riot, caused by an alleged attempt to settle a whisky debt of $25, and resulting in the injury of two men and the arrest of five persons, which occurred late Friday night, is under probe by the police department.

John Dye, of 865 South Pryor street, and his 15-year-old son, Firm Dye; Paul Stewart, of 89 Echo Street; H. S. Hanson, of 24 McMillan street; J. J. Miller, of 204 Dalvigny street, were the five participants placed under arrest. Cases of disorderly conduct were docketed and they were held in default of trial and trial date set.

According to the police, Hanson, Maner and Stewart, in company with several other men, whose names were not learned, went to the residence of Dye, who was in possession of a whisky debt of $25, alleged to be due for two gallons of whisky.

It is alleged that members of the party, who roared and revved, and that one of them carried a bayonet equipped arms rifle, using a revolver, Dye and his son, covered Hanson, Maner and Stewart and forced the two to go to a pharmacy, on Pryor street, near the Ridge avenue intersection, where they planned for the police.

Both Dye and Stewart exhibited knife cuts they had received from some member of the alleged "gang."

Mercury Tablets May End Lives Of Noted Pair

Mischa Applebaum and Wife, Formerly Helen Yorke, Noted Singer, Swallow Poison by Mistake.

New York, October 22.—Mischa Applebaum and his wife, Helen Yorke, the noted Boston concert soprano, leaders of the so-called humanitarian cult, were taken from their apartment in West Seventy-fourth street here Friday night and rushed to the Knickerbocker hospital, believed to have taken bichloride of mercury.

The doctor said the couple had taken four tablets apiece.

Applebaum, a lecturer of some note on such topics as capital punishment, which he opposed, had been divorced from Mrs. Irma Applebaum, who got a decree in Boston, charging incompatibility of temperament. This pair has a son who is now seven years old.

Mrs. Yorke, who only recently sang in a very successful concert with Bondi, the famous Italian tenor, at the Lexington opera house, married Applebaum in Justice Guy's supreme court on April 6, 1920. She is from Wicker Hill, Boston.

Late Friday afternoon Applebaum rushed out of his apartment and called to the elevator operator: "Send up a policeman; we have taken poison by mistake."

Patrolman Singer, who responded, found Miss Yorke lying across a bed and Applebaum in the bathroom. They removed some of the neighboring flats and obtained several eggs, which he fed raw to the couple as an emetic. An ambulance arrived soon afterward and took them to the complete emergency treatment. At the hospital it was said they were resting easily, but a surgeon added that sometimes bichloride of mercury does not begin to assert its deadliness for four days.

A bottle of bichloride of mercury tablets which the policeman found on the mantel of the Applebaum apartment was appropriately labeled and also was inscribed in conscious letters, "Poison."

The Haunted House Hunter.

The queen of my household and I were playing the fascinating game of squaring a two hundred dollar income to the prospective ninety dollar apartment, with sun parlor and things. The very deuces were wild.

I said something about the beautiful house we would have, and she raised the ante.

"You are right," she said, "and we could name it 'Poker Flat.'

"But you are just too literary for anything," I replied. "You know very well that I don't know anything about 'hearts'—not even the Bret Harte!"

"I thought you liked authors," she said.

"No, you were thinking of checkers, your move!"

"With for the house that the Jacks built," chipped in.

"But that would be out of the question," she said, and, biting, I asked why.

"You know when the card houses are stacked," she replied. "She said, "the dominoes have it."

All of which shows that house-hunting can be made a bright and cheerful pastime. You can play it right in your home, too, without having to count out the housewives who are always looking up your family tree and asking all manner of things about the nine uncles and the ten aunts which their prospective tenants have.

Cuticura Shampoos Mean Healthy Hair

Especially if preceded by touches of Cuticura Ointment to spots of dandruff, itching and irritation. This treatment does much to keep the scalp clean and healthy and to promote hair growth.

Sample Book Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 12, Madison Avenue, New York." "Cuticura Soap shaves without soap."

GOV. PARKER TO URGE CLOSING OF GINNERSIES

Proclamation Will Be Issued Monday by Louisiana Executive.

Henry G. Goodman.

Henry G. Goodman died Tuesday at the Home for Confederate Soldiers. He is survived by his widow and a seven-year-old daughter, Ga. The body was removed to the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

Harry Peters.

The body of Harry L. Peters, son of Thomas Peters of Atlanta, will arrive in Atlanta Sunday afternoon. Mr. Peters died Thursday at Dallas, Texas. Besides his father, he was survived by his wife and two children, two sisters, Mrs. Shoum Ball and Miss Ellen Peters, three brothers, Thomas Lindsay and Edward J. Peters.

Willis Pugman Whiting.

Buffalo, N. Y., October 22.—(Special).—Willis Pugman Whiting, father of Willis Careton Whiting, who died here this morning after a brief illness, at his home, 112 Norwood avenue. He leaves a wife, Ella Morris Whiting; two other sons, Edward J. Morris, 26, of Rochester, N. Y., and Lloyd Morris Whiting, of Buffalo. Funeral services will be held at the home here Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in the Forest Lawn cemetery.

Mrs. Max Corpur.

Mrs. Max Van Den Corpur, 70 years old, died last night at a private hospital. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. William Jessop, of William F. George.

William F. George, 38 years of age, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Electrical engineer, is being taught by the Signal Corps to 2,387 disabled former soldiers, and engineering of all kinds to 2,387.

Mr. Peter, died Thursday night at the Hotel Corinth, U. S. Army Post, Atlanta. The body was removed to Rico, Majos Rex, Van Den Corpur, in the chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son.

U. S. army, Fort Stevens, Oregon, Son.

Illustrating Below the Outstanding Attractions at the Signet for

Saturday and Monday

Walter Ballard Optical Co.

105 Peachtree St. ATLANTA Clock Sign.

A Suggestion

To our out-of-town Customers and Friends: When you come to the Southeastern Fair, October 16 to 26, or any other time on business, and need glasses or our advice, come to us direct on arrival. Do not put it off until the last thing, as we positively refuse to sell you glasses unless we have sufficient time to test your eyes as they should be. This is absolutely necessary in order to give you satisfaction, and for us to retain our reputation. Our service is worth all you pay for it. Ask any one who has tried it.

Should command the attention of every thrifty woman in Atlanta, as these are of pure thread silk, reinforced heels and toes. They can be had in plains, drop-stitch and lace clock effects. All colors. They would be an exceptional value at $1.50.

Should command the attention of every thrifty woman in Atlanta, as these are of pure thread silk, reinforced heels and toes. They can be had in plains, drop-stitch and lace clock effects. All colors. They would be an exceptional value at $1.50.

Should command the attention of every thrifty woman in Atlanta, as these are of pure thread silk, reinforced heels and toes. They can be had in plains, drop-stitch and lace clock effects. All colors. They would be an exceptional value at $1.50.

Should command the attention of every thrifty woman in Atlanta, as these are of pure thread silk, reinforced heels and toes. They can be had in plains, drop-stitch and lace clock effects. All colors. They would be an exceptional value at $1.50.

Should command the attention of every thrifty woman in Atlanta, as these are of pure thread silk, reinforced heels and toes. They can be had in plains, drop-stitch and lace clock effects. All colors. They would be an exceptional value at $1.50.

Should command the attention of every thrifty woman in Atlanta, as these are of pure thread silk, reinforced heels and toes. They can be had in plains, drop-stitch and lace clock effects. All colors. They would be an exceptional value at $1.50.

Should command the attention of every thrifty woman in Atlanta, as these are of pure thread silk, reinforced heels and toes. They can be had in plains, drop-stitch and lace clock effects. All colors. They would be an exceptional value at $1.50.

Should command the attention of every thrifty woman in Atlanta, as these are of pure thread silk, reinforced heels and toes. They can be had in plains, drop-stitch and lace clock effects. All colors. They would be an exceptional value at $1.50.

BITTER CONTESTS FOR THE CONTROL OF U.S. SENATE

BY MARK SULLIVAN.

(Copyright, 1922.)
Washington, October 22.—As I have frequently said, the presidential situation has long run strongly in favor of the republicans. The presidential situation is frequently spoken of as "overwhelmingly republican," but this characterization is only partially accurate. As respects electoral votes and as respects the number of states, the republicans can look like a victory for Harding sufficiently marked to justify the word "overwhelming." But in terms of the popular vote that is not true. Indiana likely to give Harding a greater majority than 60,000 and so large a state as Ohio not likely to give him a majority greater than 80,000, the republicans have a majority in Illinois likely to be below rather than above normal—under these circumstances the republican advantage cannot accurately be said to be overwhelming.

The fact is that in state after state is not particularly large margin of voters who are normally democratic will this year vote for Harding because they are tired of the republicans and the democratic administration at Washington. These voters are not large in numbers but they do not need to be more than, say, one in ten of the democratic vote to swing state after state out of the democratic column into the republican column. One in ten of the democrats is the same thing as one in twenty of the republican electorate. This is not a striking proportion. It is only 5 per cent.

Unquestionably that 5 per cent who are going to change their vote from democratic to republican is not. And one in twenty is enough to change the majority in a good many states. I am not saying that it is only one in ten who will change; I am merely saying that it is enough to assure republicans victory.

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1920.

However, it is merely academic to discuss to what degree the term "overwhelming republican victory" can be applied. And now, Mr. Harding is in the lead to such an extent that it is hard to imagine his being dislodged during the last two weeks of a rather apathetic campaign.

Senate Another Matter.

So much for the presidency. The control of the senate, however, is quite another matter.

One of the most cutting, but at the same time one of the most clever, things in politics is the way Senator Josephine Daniels, a democrat whose intellectual capacity is much underestimated. Mr. Daniels went to North Carolina a few days ago to make a campaign speech in that home state. In the course of it he said:

"The republican majority in the senate is out on ball."

What he meant was that the republicans have a nominal majority of two votes in the senate, but that one of them is Newberry, Michigan, who is under conviction for having secured his seat through the illegal use of money and is now awaiting the result of an appeal before the highest court. Pending the result of that appeal, Senator Newberry, as a matter of taste, refrains from voting in the senate. With Newberry not voting either temporarily for reasons of taste or permanently for reasons more binding than taste, the republicans have forty-eight senators and the democrats forty-seven.

The other senator who is counted nominally among the republicans is La Follette, of Wisconsin. La Follette is just as likely to vote with the democrats as with the republicans, and while the democrats have forty-eight votes to the republicans' forty-seven.

Further, one republican senator, Gronna of Minnesota, is in the process of renomination in the primaries. His successor will be either a democrat or a Non-Partisan league. In North Dakota the Non-Partisan league has cut loose from its original organization, so that the republican nominee to succeed Gronna, Dr. E. F. Ladd (who, by the way, is an able man), is really more or less a Non-Partisan. Larger than he is republican. He can no longer be depended upon to help make up a republican majority in the senate. If Ladd is elected, he is likely a democrat still; so that in any event the republicans in the future senate will not be able to count one from North Dakota, as they are in the present senate.

Situation a Precarious One.

This is enough to show how serious the situation in the senate is with the republicans and that not merely that they are really one or two short of a majority. It is worse than that. There are several republicans in the senate other than La Follette who are not very dependable from a party point of view—Johnson, of California, for example. Johnson is never a very dependable republican but when next senator he intends to be an Indian. He is practically off the reservation right now. He says openly that his present support of the republican ticket is merely a truce. To his friends and to newspaper men privately he says more than that. He says he is going on the straight road to socialism. Johnson has not got over the way he was treated by the Chicago convention. He was not merely defeated, but humiliated. The man who made the nomination, Johnson, was laughed at, and Johnson was made to seem a little ridiculous. That is the sort of thing that generally happens in politics. Johnson's personality is one that functions very powerfully on the fuel of a grievance. Most decided the republicans cannot feel comfortable in depending on Johnson as a bear den he would be in for the next four years if he should have a hostile senate. He has the responsibility of the senate and elsewhere as well, having an uncomfortable recollection of the tension that has existed between the republican senate and the house of representatives when he was in the senate.

When he saw that just as they believed Wilson would be a democratic senate, if it should come about, he did not王者.

In the present tension, whether the fault is Wilson's or the republican senate—which began it and which most probably will be responsible for its consequences. The fact is that it has existed, and the fact of its present existence would lead to more of it if the situation should be duplicated every year round during the next four years.

Furthermore, it is a fundamental part of the republican program to get rid of the house of harmony by uniting the white house with the capital that has existed, not only in Wilson's time, but almost all the time for the past sixteen years, uniting with Roosevelt's break with the senate and house. The republican program is one of party responsibility—a single party dominating the white house, the house, and working smoothly and harmoniously. That is the republican ideal.

Consequently, the republicans, if they are sufficiently confident of success for Harding and for the lower house, might conceivably make an effective appeal to individual voters to vote for a republican senate. If they could convince the voters that they are sure to have the presidency and the lower house they are also a republican senate. Let the control of all three branches of the government be with one party. Help us to avoid the delays and deadlocks that have frustrated our efforts. Give us a machine that can function swiftly and smoothly. Put the responsibility on us, but give us the power to fulfill that responsibility.

As a matter of fact, some of the more thoughtful republicans are beginning to say that this is what the republicans want, when he says that party responsibility and harmonious and effective mechanism of government are more important than any one issue.

The Next Senate.

However, that is the concern of the republican leaders. This article is concerned with examining the probability of the republicans controlling the senate. We see just how great that probability is.

I have spoken of the present senate. Let us now consider the next senate—the one that will come into existence with the 4th of March, the one whose make-up is determined by the senatorial elections.

Of the thirty-four senators whose terms will expire, nineteen are democrats and fifteen are republicans.

If each party would hold its own, the senators would be as follows: June 1st, with a nominal republican majority of two, but a real republican majority of less than nothing.

On the other hand, if it were to speak, against the republicans: Of the nineteen democratic vacancies nine are in southern states—Virginia, Florida, Louisiana, Arkansas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia (2) and Alabama. These will be filled by democrats without a doubt, whatever. There are only ten democratic vacancies where the republicans have a chance to make gains.

On the other hand, of the fifteen republican vacancies there are three cases where the republicans are sure to return their men easily. These cases are Penrose, of Colorado, Curtis and Dillingham have the only republican senatorial seats in the country where the republicans can feel perfectly safe. In the case of every one of the twelve remaining republican seats the republican have the hardest kind of fight in degree, of course, but there is a real fight in every one of the twelve cases. In all but one of the twelve cases, however, it is conceded that the republican candidate for senator will run behind Harding. This is true even in the case of Penrose, half of these cases the republicans themselves concede that if it were not a presidential year, it would be beaten by the democrats. That is particularly the case with Watson, of Indiana.

In nearly half of these cases the republicans themselves concede that if it were not a presidential year, it would be beaten by the democrats.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the republicans might readily win.

The states in which democrats are fighting to retain their seats, omitting the nine southern senators, are Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, Utah and Washington. Among these, the states where the republicans have a particularly difficult fight are New Hampshire, Connecticut, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Utah. There are also, in New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Kansas. That if it were not a presidential year, or if it were in all respects a normal year, the

RALEY REPORTS LOSS OF HIS CAR TO POLICE

Police were instructed last night to keep & watch out for a seven-passenger automobile stolen at 7 o'clock Friday night from in front of No. 10 Peachtree Street. The time the victim was J. E. Raley. He stated to the police, whom he informed, that his car was a Willys-Knight machine painted red.

GETS BEST RESULTS FROM LIVATABS

J. R. E. Baisden Has Tried Almost Every Liver Medicine—Livatabs Are Best—Never Stops Work When He Takes Them—Not Afraid to Eat Anything—Read His Letter.

Mr. E. E. Baisden, of Brown House, Macon, Ga., writes the letter reproduced below because he has tried Livatabs and is enthusiastic about them. We print it without changing a word.

"I know that Livatabs are the best; because I have almost everything else and get better results from them. I desire to say that the best results are obtained by taking them according to the directions and not just any way."

"When taking Livatabs I never stop work and am able to eat anything I may want, as there's no calomel pills that work without griping, sickness or salivation."

"If your druggist does not carry Livatabs and cost too for full sized package, Livatabs are also sold in smaller packages. If you are satisfied with the results, your druggist is authorized to refund your money on return of the receipt to the Southern Druggists Syndicate, Macon, Ga.—(adv.)"

K
O
D
A
K
S
AND

"Everything Kodakers Need"
8-HOUR FILM DEVELOPING GOODHART-TOMPINKINS CO.
Rodak Headquarters
72 N. Broad Street

In Atlantic City it's the ALAMAC
Plumb on the Boardwalk
MACK LATZ CO.

LA FAYETTE

The New LaFayette is now on view at our show rooms
541 Peachtree Street

On Display at Southern Fair.
LA FAYETTE
DISTRIBUTING COMPANY

Sorosis Shoe Department

Standard

A glance at her feet can very soon make a woman feel "out of place." But the glances are glances of admiration when her ankles are properly and timely clad in the proper style Standard Spats. A beautiful assortment of shades to choose from.

PRICED $3.00 TO $5.00

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

Sorosis School Shoes

Now, as never before, it pays to buy Shoes of known quality.

Sorosis Orthopedic Shoes

The sensible Shoe you should buy for the children. These high-quality Shoes are built by specialists on nature-shaped lasts. We take unusual care in fitting children and guarantee every pair that we sell.

Sizes 5½ to 8.....$5.00 to $6.50
Sizes 6½ to 11.....$6.00 to $7.50
Sizes 11½ to 2.....$6.50 to $8.50

The above sizes come in black kid and calf, brown calf, black vamp, white top; lace or button.

For Growing Girls, sizes 2½ up, $8.50 to $15.00
In brown kid and calf, black kid and calf, patent kid with white kid tops.

For Little Gents and Boys—Black tan and calf.
$5.00 to $7.00, according to leather.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

WORK IS STOPPED IN WAR ON TRUSTREAD LEAGUE CHARTER, SAYS CHAIRMAN WHITE

New York Rescinds Contracts for $7,000,000 as Blow at Building Combine—City Walled by Trusts, Mayor Says.

New York, October 22.—(By the Associated Press)—New York is ready to suspend all public work until it is learned if there is "open competition in bidding for the work."

This announcement was made here late today by Mayor Hylan, when the joint legislative committee adjourned until November 4, after its counsel had asserted that it only scratched the surface in its investigation of the "building trust."

Developments in the building situation came in a dramatic fashion this afternoon after Mayor Hylan had addressed the board of estimate, declaring "the building trust, the milk trust, the coal trust and the other trusts have built a wall about the wall of Clinton Hill."

While the legislative committee was quizzing witnesses in one chamber of the city hall, the board of estimate, meeting in another, rescinded four contracts involving approximately seven million dollars' worth of work on New York county's proposed courthouse. The mayor also authorized Commissioner of Accounts Hirschfeld to make a searching investigation of all contracts for school houses.

"I want the people to know that they will be protected against men who are seeking by means of combinations and unfair practices to mullet the people," explained the mayor.

While the legislative committee held only brief session today, Samuel Untermyer, committee counsel, said he had secured evidence showing the activities of the alleged labor-contractor combination, which he asserted was stifling construction work in New York city.

Important documents were:

Refusal of Robert P. Brindell,

president of the Building Trades

council, to take advantage of the opportunity given him by the committee to ratify testimony of Ephraim Levy and George Becker, regarding a bribe of $25,000 paid to their representatives to call off a strike.

Assertion by Mr. Untermyer that a widespread system of extortion was being practiced by contractors

was denied by the contractors

and the secretaries of the code of practice before they were offered to a prospective client.

A dramatic moment came when Morton Schnader, plumbing contractor, stepped on the witness stand with committee counsel not to continue questions, which he said would imperil his "million-dollar world of business" by withdrawing of labor.

Schnader made this appeal after testifying he had subscribed under contract to supply all the fixtures for the plumbing contractors. This organization, he said, consisted of the 400 contractors of the "Fifty-eighth Street Association," who sent their bids to John T. Heitrick, a lawyer, who is alleged to have operated the "code."

integrity of America's bankers as a whole and call into question their motives and practices in the conduct of their business. Criticism based on harmful generalizing is most unjust and misleading.

"The inevitable effect of such broad and unfounded statements is to create false inferences in the mind of the public. We protest against such reflections as not only unfair, but in the present emergency most untimely, as calculated to create an unfounded hostility to the relations between bankers and the public, and in extreme instances to breed violence of actions and dangerous disturbances of the public mind.

"If such misleading inferences should be made for personal profit or gratification, they cannot be too severely denounced as outrages against the public interest. The delicacy of the credit structure of the country cannot safely stand such violent handling, and irresponsible attacks must seriously threaten its security."

"Governor Cox and the democratic party are going in on that basis," said Hylan. "If he stands for anything, it is to see that the league of nations is not only scratchy, but the present emergency most untimely, as calculated to create an unfounded hostility to the relations between bankers and the public, and in extreme instances to breed violence of actions and dangerous disturbances of the public mind.

"The great issue before the American people is: Shall the United States join the league of nations with such reservations as are deemed necessary to stress the league's sole purpose to insure peace and security for the supremacy of the constitution?"

"Development in the building situation came in a dramatic fashion this afternoon after Mayor Hylan had addressed the board of estimate, declaring "the building trust, the milk trust, the coal trust and the other trusts have built a wall about the wall of Clinton Hill."

While the legislative committee was quizzing witnesses in one chamber of the city hall, the board of estimate, meeting in another, rescinded four contracts involving approximately seven million dollars' worth of work on New York county's proposed courthouse. The mayor also authorized Commissioner of Accounts Hirschfeld to make a searching investigation of all contracts for school houses.

"I want the people to know that they will be protected against men who are seeking by means of combinations and unfair practices to mullet the people," explained the mayor.

While the legislative committee held only brief session today, Samuel Untermyer, committee counsel, said he had secured evidence showing the activities of the alleged labor-contractor combination, which he asserted was stifling construction work in New York city.

Important documents were:

Refusal of Robert P. Brindell,

president of the Building Trades

council, to take advantage of the opportunity given him by the committee to ratify testimony of Ephraim Levy and George Becker, regarding a bribe of $25,000 paid to their representatives to call off a strike.

Assertion by Mr. Untermyer that a widespread system of extortion was being practiced by contractors

was denied by the contractors

and the secretaries of the code of practice before they were offered to a prospective client.

A dramatic moment came when Morton Schnader, plumbing contractor, stepped on the witness stand with committee counsel not to continue questions, which he said would imperil his "million-dollar world of business" by withdrawing of labor.

Schnader made this appeal after testifying he had subscribed under contract to supply all the fixtures for the plumbing contractors. This organization, he said, consisted of the 400 contractors of the "Fifty-eighth Street Association," who sent their bids to John T. Heitrick, a lawyer, who is alleged to have operated the "code."

The far-seeing man or woman when purchasing endeavors always to do these things:

To Purchase Merchandise of Guaranteed Quality at the Lowest Possible Price

For over half a century, this Institution has sold merchandise of CERTAIN QUALITY at the lowest price possible to sell it for, consistent with its market values. Today, we believe that you can purchase merchandise of from us for less than you could purchase it anywhere else in the United States. The reason is simply that, throughout its history, this Institution has followed the market closely, keeping in such condition as to enable us to give to our customers every advantage of price as the market fluctuates.

Guaranteed Quality

WEEK-END SPECIALS OF UNUSUAL IMPORTANCE ARE ANNOUNCED FOR TODAY

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

to maintain. It is not increase, their grip on international trade.

A committee was named to give further consideration to the subject.

Several thousand of the bankers plan to visit Baltimore and Annapolis tomorrow as the guests of a Baltimore financial house.

WILLIAMS STANDS BY HIS CHARGES

Washington, October 22.—Reiter for the purpose of crushing the proletariat is being organized by the bourgeoisie, but it is confronted by the revolutionary organization of the masses throughout the world, says a manifesto addressed to "all workers and officials," which was printed today in The Avant, socialist organ. The manifesto was signed by the socialist party, the anarchist federation, the General Federation of Labor, the Confederation of Labor, and the federation of seamen and the federation of harbor workers.

"Versailles is confronted by Moscow," said the manifesto. "The banks are demanding 'extortionate interest rates,'" Comptroller of the Currency, today declared; that instead of criticism of his charges,

"the plain, indisputable proposition of the League of Nations is the reformation of abuses which have come impossibly."

The controller's statement was issued in connection with the adoption of a resolution by the American Bankers' Association condemning what it termed "dangerous atttempts" on the credit system of the country.

Contending that it was his duty to protect such "abuses" as are found in the League's text book, the controller omitted it from his copy of the League's text book.

Many republican newspapers have decided to print it in their newspapers friendly to our cause.

Many republican newspapers have

decided to print it in their

newspapers friendly to our cause.

The report condemned "speculative hoarding" in agriculture or other industries, renewed the recommendation for a national banking system and expressed the association's complete disapproval of nationalization of industry, particularly as contemplated by the Plumb plan.

Governance and Business

The association, through its committee on trade acceptances as opposing further participation of the government in business enterprises," referred to the alleged extravagant losses resulting from government participation in busi

The gum of the pine seems to be practically indestructible, and one of the chief exports of New Zealand is the gum of native trees which died centuries ago. The wood has long ago disappeared, but chunks of pure pine-like gum are still dug from the stumps.

A new substitute for glass or for lacquer has been invented in Germany. It can be cut with shears or with a knife, and when heated to a temperature of 100 degrees Centigrade, it forms a kind of glass which resumes its previous hard state on cooling. It is known as "celon."

THE BEST THING FOR BABY'S COLD

Gowan's, the Original Penetrating Salve. A Cooling, Soothing, External Application that Will Not Irritate or Blister Baby's Tender Skin.

Made With an Animal Fat Base That Goes Right in and Makes Breathing Free and Easy Immediately. Quickly Breaks Up Congestion in the Blood Vessels.

WILL NOT STAIN CLOTHING

When baby has a cold, or starts you in the night with spasmodic cough, you should have a jar of Gowan's preparation handy. Apply over throat and chest, and it will quickly penetrate, reaching the body of the lungs and giving almost immediate relief. No dosing that will upset the stomach, but an external treatment that may be given.

Gowan's, the original penetrating salve, gets right to the inflamed membranes through its penetrating qualities, soothes and heals, and gives a free passage for easy breathing. It produces a subfebrile effect without the slightest irritation and quickly breaks up the congested blood vessels.

Gowan's gives relief beyond belief and will not stain the clothing. It may damage the hand, and should be kept on hand for emergencies, such as cuts, burns, bruises, insect bites, etc., 30c, 60c and $1.00 at your druggist and guaranteed to please or money refunded. (adv.)

DESCRIBES RAID ON IRISH CASTLE

Walter Tells of Adventures During Sinn Fein Descent Upon Castle of Nobleman.

BY K. WALTER.

Dublin, October 22.—I have just returned from a famous old Irish castle where I had the good fortune to be staying when it was raided by an armed and masked company of Sinn Feiners. The good fortune was to be able to learn at first hand how these extraordinary actions are carried out and to what extent they are in their manner criminal actions or the military actions of a rebel government.

For personal reasons I must not give the name of the castle, but it is one of the old feudal strongholds of Ireland which has been in the hands of the English for generations. It stands on an elevation in a great park and from its battlemented towers—half a dozen sharpshooters at bay—can be seen taking the customary preliminary of cutting the wires of the telephone.

The first intimation of the visit was a ringing of the bell at the great hall door, just the usual polite ringing. A group of eight men stood at the door, only three of them masked, all wearing black, carrying nothing but their arms. They asked politely enough to see his lordship, who happened to be out. They explained their intent and had an interview with the housekeeper, or, failing her, the butler. The butler was a very able and genial man. In the inner hall, where the three masked men were conducted, the other raiders having been sent to their stations, the rest of the household being kept in one room under guard.

Demand Arms.

"We are sorry to disturb you, madam," said the chief of the masked men, with every courtesy, "but we would like to give up to us any arms or ammunition or military equipment which may be in this castle."

The housekeeper assured them that there was nothing of such a nature in the place.

"We want a strong room in the castle," said the leader. "There is nothing in that you want," she assured him.

"We haven't the keys. His lordship bought a few days ago," said the leader. "If you know so much, perhaps you know where they are," said the housekeeper. "For it's more than I do. I never heard a word about it. As I'm a true Irishwoman."

"If you're a true Irishwoman you will be so kind as to tell me where I can find the castle and well make no more trouble for you than any other visitors and touch nothing that we are under orders to take."

"Well, come along and get it over," she said. "But it's nothing you'll find of arms here at all. His lordship has had no guns in the place for many a day."

She led them through winding passages and up and down ancient stone steps.

"It's not an easy place to find your way about in," said the leader.

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

Hausekeeper Scores.

The raiders laughed at her readiness.

"You've a good spirit, madam, and indeed I could see it in your honest Irish face when we first met," said the leader.

"And if you had an honest Irish face yourself," she retorted, "you'd have no need to cover it up the way you are."

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

"Just what th' man's reply was I don't on record because he was so quick to make her remark a parting shot that would rankle in the heart of the bullies at the crest of the day. But to sum up, the leader removed his mask, as also did the others, and called them together, and before she well knew it, the housekeeper was all sitting down together at the tea table in the room of the housekeeper's room, the maids waiting on them and one of them taking a cup of tea and posted on watch at the outer gate against his lordship's premature arrival.

At the big house in the neighborhood for miles around were raised the same day, and so far as I could learn with the same courtesy. His lordship and his guests could have got it into their heads that anybody would be buying 500 cartridges for private use when the good gunsmiths were up to the mark.

"It's equipment," said one of the leaders, "and the Sinn Feiners had taken the rest."

"That is curious," said my host. "I was not aware of the fact I was thinking of buying 500 cartridges last week and borrowing my gun from the police for a week or two." Then when he had said this, I could almost assure you the courteous raiders lined with ancestral portraits had found nothing.

"You have a strong room in the castle," said the leader. "There is nothing in that you want," she assured him.

"We want to see that you have," said the leader.

"I haven't the keys. His lordship bought a few days ago," said the leader. "If you know so much, perhaps you know where they are," said the housekeeper. "For it's more than I do. I never heard a word about it. As I'm a true Irishwoman."

"If you're a true Irishwoman you will be so kind as to tell me where I can find the castle and well make no more trouble for you than any other visitors and touch nothing that we are under orders to take."

"Well, come along and get it over," she said. "But it's nothing you'll find of arms here at all. His lordship has had no guns in the place for many a day."

She led them through winding passages and up and down ancient stone steps.

"It's not an easy place to find your way about in," said the leader.

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

Hausekeeper Scores.

The raiders laughed at her readiness.

"You've a good spirit, madam, and indeed I could see it in your honest Irish face when we first met," said the leader.

"And if you had an honest Irish face yourself," she retorted, "you'd have no need to cover it up the way you are."

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

"Just what th' man's reply was I don't on record because he was so quick to make her remark a parting shot that would rankle in the heart of the bullies at the crest of the day. But to sum up, the leader removed his mask, as also did the others, and called them together, and before she well knew it, the housekeeper was all sitting down together at the tea table in the room of the housekeeper's room, the maids waiting on them and one of them taking a cup of tea and posted on watch at the outer gate against his lordship's premature arrival.

At the big house in the neighborhood for miles around were raised the same day, and so far as I could learn with the same courtesy. His lordship and his guests could have got it into their heads that anybody would be buying 500 cartridges for private use when the good gunsmiths were up to the mark.

"It's equipment," said one of the leaders, "and the Sinn Feiners had taken the rest."

"That is curious," said my host.

"I was not aware of the fact I was thinking of buying 500 cartridges last week and borrowing my gun from the police for a week or two." Then when he had said this, I could almost assure you the courteous raiders lined with ancestral portraits had found nothing.

"You have a strong room in the castle," said the leader. "There is nothing in that you want," she assured him.

"We want to see that you have," said the leader.

"I haven't the keys. His lordship bought a few days ago," said the leader. "If you know so much, perhaps you know where they are," said

the housekeeper. "For it's more than I do. I never heard a word about it. As I'm a true Irishwoman."

"If you're a true Irishwoman you will be so kind as to tell me where I can find the castle and well make no more trouble for you than any other visitors and touch nothing that we are under orders to take."

"Well, come along and get it over," she said. "But it's nothing you'll find of arms here at all. His lordship has had no guns in the place for many a day."

She led them through winding passages and up and down ancient stone steps.

"It's not an easy place to find your way about in," said the leader.

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

Hausekeeper Scores.

The raiders laughed at her readiness.

"You've a good spirit, madam, and indeed I could see it in your honest Irish face when we first met," said the leader.

"And if you had an honest Irish face yourself," she retorted, "you'd have no need to cover it up the way you are."

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

"Just what th' man's reply was I don't on record because he was so quick to make her remark a parting shot that would rankle in the heart of the bullies at the crest of the day. But to sum up, the leader removed his mask, as also did the others, and called them together, and before she well knew it, the housekeeper was all sitting down together at the tea table in the room of the housekeeper's room, the maids waiting on them and one of them taking a cup of tea and posted on watch at the outer gate against his lordship's premature arrival.

At the big house in the neighborhood for miles around were raised the same day, and so far as I could learn with the same courtesy. His lordship and his guests could have got it into their heads that anybody would be buying 500 cartridges for private use when the good gunsmiths were up to the mark.

"It's equipment," said one of the leaders, "and the Sinn Feiners had taken the rest."

"That is curious," said my host.

"I was not aware of the fact I was thinking of buying 500 cartridges last week and borrowing my gun from the police for a week or two." Then when he had said this, I could almost assure you the courteous raiders lined with ancestral portraits had found nothing.

"You have a strong room in the castle," said the leader. "There is nothing in that you want," she assured him.

"We want to see that you have," said the leader.

"I haven't the keys. His lordship bought a few days ago," said the leader. "If you know so much, perhaps you know where they are," said

the housekeeper. "For it's more than I do. I never heard a word about it. As I'm a true Irishwoman."

"If you're a true Irishwoman you will be so kind as to tell me where I can find the castle and well make no more trouble for you than any other visitors and touch nothing that we are under orders to take."

"Well, come along and get it over," she said. "But it's nothing you'll find of arms here at all. His lordship has had no guns in the place for many a day."

She led them through winding passages and up and down ancient stone steps.

"It's not an easy place to find your way about in," said the leader.

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

Hausekeeper Scores.

The raiders laughed at her readiness.

"You've a good spirit, madam, and indeed I could see it in your honest Irish face when we first met," said the leader.

"And if you had an honest Irish face yourself," she retorted, "you'd have no need to cover it up the way you are."

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

"Just what th' man's reply was I don't on record because he was so quick to make her remark a parting shot that would rankle in the heart of the bullies at the crest of the day. But to sum up, the leader removed his mask, as also did the others, and called them together, and before she well knew it, the housekeeper was all sitting down together at the tea table in the room of the housekeeper's room, the maids waiting on them and one of them taking a cup of tea and posted on watch at the outer gate against his lordship's premature arrival.

At the big house in the neighborhood for miles around were raised the same day, and so far as I could learn with the same courtesy. His lordship and his guests could have got it into their heads that anybody would be buying 500 cartridges for private use when the good gunsmiths were up to the mark.

"It's equipment," said one of the leaders, "and the Sinn Feiners had taken the rest."

"That is curious," said my host.

"I was not aware of the fact I was thinking of buying 500 cartridges last week and borrowing my gun from the police for a week or two." Then when he had said this, I could almost assure you the courteous raiders lined with ancestral portraits had found nothing.

"You have a strong room in the castle," said the leader. "There is nothing in that you want," she assured him.

"We want to see that you have," said the leader.

"I haven't the keys. His lordship bought a few days ago," said the leader. "If you know so much, perhaps you know where they are," said

the housekeeper. "For it's more than I do. I never heard a word about it. As I'm a true Irishwoman."

"If you're a true Irishwoman you will be so kind as to tell me where I can find the castle and well make no more trouble for you than any other visitors and touch nothing that we are under orders to take."

"Well, come along and get it over," she said. "But it's nothing you'll find of arms here at all. His lordship has had no guns in the place for many a day."

She led them through winding passages and up and down ancient stone steps.

"It's not an easy place to find your way about in," said the leader.

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

Hausekeeper Scores.

The raiders laughed at her readiness.

"You've a good spirit, madam, and indeed I could see it in your honest Irish face when we first met," said the leader.

"And if you had an honest Irish face yourself," she retorted, "you'd have no need to cover it up the way you are."

"It's not an easy place to find your way out of," said the housekeeper.

"Just what th' man's reply was I don't on record because he was so quick to make her remark a parting shot that would rankle in the heart of the bullies at the crest of the day. But to sum up, the leader removed his mask, as also did the others, and called them together, and before she well knew it, the housekeeper was all sitting down together at the tea table in the room of the housekeeper's room, the maids waiting on them and one of them taking a cup of tea and posted on watch at the outer gate against his lordship's premature arrival.

At the big house in the neighborhood for miles around were raised the same day, and so far as I could learn with the same courtesy. His lordship and his guests could have got it into their heads that anybody would be buying 500 cartridges for private use when the good gunsmiths were up to the mark.

"It's equipment," said one of the leaders, "and the Sinn Feiners had taken the rest."

"That is curious," said my host.

"I was not aware of the fact I was thinking of buying 500 cartridges last week and borrowing my gun from the police for a week or two." Then when he had said this, I could almost assure you the courteous raiders lined with ancestral portraits had found nothing.

"You have a strong room in the castle," said the leader. "There is nothing in that you want," she assured him.

"We want to see that you have," said the leader.

PHYSICIAN CHARGED WITH BURNING CAR

Dr. David Hawkins Faces Recorder This Morning. Two Young Men Held for Complicity.

Dr. David E. Hawkins, former army surgeon, will be arraigned before Recorder Johnson in police court this morning on a charge of having set an automobile on fire for the purpose of obtaining the insurance money.

Jimmy Neal, aged 27, and O. N. Clegg, proprietor of the Cribbs garage at Calhoun, will also be tried for complicity in the arson case. Dr. Hawkins and Cribbs are now, however, under $500 bond each, and Neal is on his own recognizance.

Dr. Hawkins was arrested Thursday afternoon in his office at the Candler building, following his alleged confession to detectives of Jimmy Neal. The confession of Neal is said to involve another man not yet identified. Neal was arrested at Cribbs' garage and Cribbs was arrested at his residence, 129 Peachtree street.

The charges grew out of the burning of a Peerless coupe belonging to Dr. Hawkins on the night of August 25, after the car had apparently been tampered with in a tank on the Marietta road at the point where it crosses over the railroad at Collins' switch. At the instance of an automobile insurance

BROTHER'S SUICIDE CAUSES PETITION OF BANKRUPTCY

Macon, Ga., October 22.—(Special)—The recent suicide of W. M. Hoyle, of Thomaston, at a Macon hotel a few weeks ago resulted in his brother, G. B. Hoyle, the surviving member of the firm of Hoyle Bros., of Thomaston, filing a petition in bankruptcy here today.

The petitioner states he has been left with the sole responsibility of discharging a large indebtedness by reason of his brother's death and he is unable to do so. His schedule shows liabilities of $28,367.35 and assets of $18,255.50.

Referee J. N. Tally today appointed James F. Davis, of Thomaston, as receiver for the estate.

At the time of the suicide of W. M. Hoyle in Macon a letter was found on a person which stated he had no desire to commit suicide, but that "something would happen within the next few days that he would be unable to face."

LUMBER COMPANY SUFFERS BIG LOSS IN MOULTRIE FIRE

Moultrie, Ga., October 22.—(Special)—A planing mill, sawmill, kiln and cabinet shop owned by the Aycock lumber company, was destroyed by fire this afternoon. The loss is estimated at $25,000, from $40,000 to $50,000, with insurance totaling approximately $25,000.

The fire is reported to have been caused by a spark from a passing locomotive. The plant was located outside of the city limits and there was no way to which to fight the fire. For about two hours the plant was closed because of the stringency in the lumber market, but a watchman on duty discovered the blaze and after it had started, such headway had been gained, however, that it could not be checked.

Driver of Death Car Convicted by Jury; Appeals for New Trial

Gray, Ga., October 22.—Charles N. Hudson, charged with the murder of Miss Drusilla Devlin, who was killed by a shooting while Hudson was driving on September 27, was today found guilty of voluntary manslaughter. The penalty was fixed at $1,000.

Nearly twelve hours was needed for the jury to reach a verdict. Evidence in the case showed Hudson was the influence of liquor when he struck Miss Devlin, practically crushing off one of her legs above the knee.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to you wife and babies. Aspironal is by far the easiest and most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—(adv.)

How Will Your Clothes Look Six Months From Today?

Tented Moonshine Village Is Destroyed

By Revenue Officers

Columbus, Ga., October 22.—(Special)—Eight stills, with a total capacity of 4,892 gallons, 11,000 gallons of beer, 77 gallons of liquor and a tented moonshine village were destroyed near here and four arrests made within the past two days by prohibition enforcement Officer S. J. Causey and his deputies.

While Neal had been in another car and had brought the driver of the wrecked car back to town, after the wreckage had been burned.

Dr. Hawkins, who is one of the city's best known surgeons, is expected to make a spirited legal fight today. He strenuously denies that the other youth drove the machine out on the Marietta road on the night of the alleged attack, while Neal had been in another car and had brought the driver of the wrecked car back to town, after the wreckage had been burned.

Dr. Hawkins, who is one of the city's best known surgeons, is expected to make a spirited legal fight today. He strenuously denies that the other youth drove the machine out on the Marietta road on the night of the alleged attack, while Neal had been in another car and had brought the driver of the wrecked car back to town, after the wreckage had been burned.

"I know absolutely nothing except what I have heard as to the facts of the case," he said. "I had been requested to register their right to comply with their request, and then requested that he take their names and records. That the city clerk also refused to do so."

Then the noise started. The ladies retired from the office and attempted to take the legal steps in an effort to secure what they claimed rightly belongs to them. Committees were appointed and from now on we are going to be waged.

Clerk Russell was glorified this afternoon by a bevy of beautiful women praying "give us this day our daily vote."

I explained with considerable enthusiasm that I didn't have their votes, but was simply the registry clerk with no provision for registering any one but the male species, and that I don't pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

Walter Ballard Optical Co. 105 Peachtree St. (Clock Sign) Atlanta, Ga.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Indorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively endorsed by the most distinguished physicians and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as either rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do is get rid of that cold or set into the nearest drug store and say, "Give me a dr. for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful with four teaspoonsful of water in a glass with ice, which is you have had, take the drink as soon as swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold melting away in a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it."

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to you wife and babies. Aspironal is by far the easiest and most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—(adv.)

WOMEN TO FIGHT FOR RIGHT TO VOTE AT BRUNSWICK

BUSINESS PROSPECTS LOOKING GOOD TO GARY

Brunswick, Ga., October 22.—(Special)—Brunswick women are all wrought up, and as they claim, just so. After being denied the privilege of voting in the national election next month, they were assured, evidently in authority, that they would vote in the state election before the United States Steel corporation declared in an address before the American Iron and Steel Institute here today.

Yesterday afternoon a delegation of 100 prominent women presented themselves at the office of W. N. Russell, clerk of council, and announced that they would register to vote in the city election. Clerk Russell informed the ladies that he had not the legal right to comply with their request, but that he would take their names and records. That the city clerk also refused to do so.

Then the noise started. The ladies retired from the office and attempted to take the legal steps in an effort to secure what they claimed rightly belongs to them. Committees were appointed and from now on we are going to be waged.

Clerk Russell was glorified this afternoon by a bevy of beautiful women praying "give us this day our daily vote."

I explained with considerable enthusiasm that I didn't have their votes, but was simply the registry clerk with no provision for registering any one but the male species, and that I don't pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business future. They need not be discouraged nor impatient."

We need some men and women to help us in the 10 per cent reduction in bonuses paid textile employees of the Cannon Manufacturing company effective January 1, as announced by the company here today. About one hundred workers will be affected by the reduction.

"Without referring to individual cases or lines of general business, it is believed that many instances have been occurring where high observation applies more especially to middlemen, so-called, and to smaller departments of industry. It also includes employees in certain industries where it does not pertain under the present conditions to the masses of workmen.

"The present tendency is toward a lower, more reasonable and fairer wage scale, and difficulty is found in the fact that the individual is perfectly willing that all others shall make reductions—the larger the better. Now a general public, including particularly those who have been out of work for any large extent, will, in one way or another, bring about a fair and reasonable adjustment of prices. The lack of supply and demand will be the principal factor."

"The people of the United States have reason for confidence in the business

THE CONSTITUTION

The Standard Southern Newspaper.

Published Daily, Sunday, Tri-Weekly.

CLARK HOWELL

Editor and General Manager.

Directors: Clark Howell, Roly Johnson, Albert Howell, Jr., E. H. Black, H. W. Grady.

Entered at the postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone Main 5000.

ATLANTA, GA., October 23, 1920.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
Daily and 1 Wk. 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Sunday ... 20c 50c $2.50 $8.00 $20.00
Daily ... 10c 25c 75c $1.00 $3.00
Sunday ... 10c 45c 1.00 1.75 3.25
Single Copies—Daily, 5c Sunday—10c.

J. R. HOLLOWAY, Constitution Building, sole advertising manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

The Constitution Washington office is at No. 680 Peachtree, corner of Fourteenth and Peachtree, N. W. Ms. J. A. Howell, correspondent.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by 2 p. m., the day after issue, at 100th Street, 10th Avenue, Broadway and Forty-second street (Times building corner); Thirty-eighth Street and Broadway; and Twenty-ninth Street and Broadway.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents.

Member of the Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to publication of all news dispatches credited to or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

PARTISAN MR. ROOT.

In response to Governor Cox's demand that former Secretary of State Elihu Root retract his assertion, made in his New York speech last Tuesday, that "Mr. Cox declared that he will insist upon the treaty just as Mr. Wilson negotiated it," which statement the democratic nominee declared to be false, Mr. Root's answer is unworthy of a man occupying such an eminent position.

Governor Cox has stated repeatedly in his public addresses, and every well-informed citizen knows, that he will accept reservations or interpretations that, as he states in his message to Root, "will clarify, that will be helpful, that will reassure the American people."

For Root, or any other man, to say that Mr. Cox insists upon ratification of the league covenant precisely as it was written is to distort the facts with an evident intent to mislead and prejudice the people against the democratic nominee.

Mr. Root is one of America's foremost constitutional and international lawyers. He is likewise known to be one of the most ardent supporters of the principles embodied in the league of nations covenant. This makes it all the more regrettable as well as surprising that he has joined the republican anvil chorus in an attack upon the league of nations covenant, and like the rest, he bases his attack upon an absolutely false pretense and upon what he, of all men, must know to be a misrepresentation.

In what was his first, and, he says, his last, formal address in behalf of Senator Harding's candidacy, this profound legal authority, who but recently helped in the construction of an international court to function through, and by authority of the league of nations, declared that in his opinion it is "most objectionable that the American people shall enter into a solemn and positive agreement to guarantee and maintain by force of arms for all time the dispositions of territory and sovereignty" bespoken in the league covenant.

"That," said Mr. Root, "is a part of what Article 10 undertakes to do."

Article 10 "undertakes to do" nothing of the kind; and Mr. Root, of all men, knows it.

Let Article 10 speak for itself:

The members of the league undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league. In case of any aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression the council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled.

The foregoing is Article 10 in full, copied from the official text, without an alteration.

There are two fundamental differences between what Article 10 says and Mr. Root's pretended interpretation of it.

What is there in Article 10 that says anything about, or even implies, any obligation on the part of the American people to "maintain by force of arms" the "dispositions of territory and sovereignty" agreed upon by the international peace conference?

The truth is this: That with all of the members of the league bound together in a pact to maintain peace in the world, and solemnly obligated to "respect and preserve as against external aggression" the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league, as provided for in Article 10, "external aggression" will be almost beyond the pale of possibility; in any event, it will be decidedly improbable.

But even should such aggression be attempted by some fanatic nation bent on national suicide, or even in the event that "danger of such aggression" shall manifest itself, "the council of the league" shall advise upon the means whereby to deal with the situation.

No "force of arms" on the part of the American people—not of any other people, for that matter—in that, if so, will Mr. Root kindly explain where it is?

Again, the truth is, no one member of the league can resort to "force of arms" against any other nation without concurrent and similar action upon the part of all "members of the league" and even in the event of such action on the part of all members, the American people are still further safeguarded in that, by our own constitutional provision—the integrity and validity of which is recognized by the league covenant—the United States cannot resort to force of arms in advance of a formal declaration of war by the American congress!

Root and the whole crowd of assailants of Article 10 are patiently and brazenly, wilfully and maliciously, trying to mislead and deceive the American voters as to the meaning of Article 10: they are trying to make it a monstrous hobgoblin to scare those voters who naturally have dread and a horror for war, and who have not read or studied the text of the league covenant.

There is no sincerity—there can be no sincerity—back of what they are saying to the voters of the country for, being intelligent men, they know that the covenant will permit of no such distorted construction as they profess to put upon it.

And the whole campaign of deception that is being waged against Article 10, and the whole league covenant, for that matter, represents simply a resort to willful misrepresentation in a desperate effort to put a republican president in the white house and the republican party in control of the affairs and the political patronage of the government!

All of which is so plainly evident that even a blind man can see it!

But able, dignified, scholarly Elihu Root was, of all American statesmen, the last from whom such demagogery and such discreditable political deception was to have been expected.

In view of Mr. Root's willingness to misrepresent the truth regarding the league in order to further partisan interests, the public will not be surprised at his failure to make the "amende honorable" which will be helpful, that will reassure the American people."

For Root, or any other man, to say that Mr. Cox insists upon ratification of the league covenant precisely as it was written is to distort the facts with an evident intent to mislead and prejudice the people against the democratic nominee.

Mr. Root is one of America's foremost constitutional and international lawyers. He is likewise known to be one of the most ardent supporters of the principles embodied in the league of nations covenant. This makes it all the more regrettable as well as surprising that he has joined the republican anvil chorus in an attack upon the league of nations covenant, and like the rest, he bases his attack upon an absolutely false pretense and upon what he, of all men, must know to be a misrepresentation.

In what was his first, and, he says, his last, formal address in behalf of Senator Harding's candidacy, this profound legal authority, who but recently helped in the construction of an international court to function through, and by authority of the league of nations, declared that in his opinion it is "most objectionable that the American people shall enter into a solemn and positive agreement to guarantee and maintain by force of arms for all time the dispositions of territory and sovereignty" bespoken in the league covenant.

"That," said Mr. Root, "is a part of what Article 10 undertakes to do."

Let Article 10 speak for itself:

The members of the league undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league. In case of any aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression the council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled.

The foregoing is Article 10 in full, copied from the official text, without an alteration.

There are two fundamental differences between what Article 10 says and Mr. Root's pretended interpretation of it.

What is there in Article 10 that says anything about, or even implies, any obligation on the part of the American people to "maintain by force of arms" the "dispositions of territory and sovereignty" agreed upon by the international peace conference?

The truth is this: That with all of the members of the league bound together in a pact to maintain peace in the world, and solemnly obligated to "respect and preserve as against external aggression" the territorial integrity

HEALTH TALKS

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

SELF-DISCIPLINE—2.

There are two kinds of self-discipline, both good: mental and physical. Maybe there are three kinds, counting moral discipline, but isn't that covered pretty well by spiritual and physical discipline?—coupled, incidentally, and physically well disciplined, self-disciplined, without being morally sound?

Mental self-discipline is inflicted on the body, while physical is in form of that most impracticable of all branches of science called algebra. If there is any purpose for algebra save cudgelng the wits have never heard of it, although I mean creditable men, in high plain and solid algebra, and the gaudesque variety, too, if I recollect.

Dime-novelsque reading is all very well as an occasional diversion, but the reader with ambition to move his mind will not squander much time on the trashy stuff published in modern magazines. He will cultivate by exploration a taste for real literature, and once he has done that, he will be well equipped for life.

But, out there they are taking it as a matter of fact, nobody is growing wildly excited about, and business is going along "about as usual."

Down here we have talked ourselves into trouble.

Isn't it about time now for us to solve whatever problem there is in our situation by devoting ourselves to practical business methods rather than by trying to convince the world that the whole south is "in a hell of a fix," when the truth is no section of the world is in as good condition as the south is to-day.

HARRY L. SCHLESINGER, Atlanta, Ga., October 22, 1920.

There is not a sound business con-

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1920.

Editorial: "Schlesinger Says Constitution Editorial 'Hits Nail Square on the Head'"

Editor Constitution: As an Atlanta business man I want to congratulate you upon the leading editorial in this morning's Constitution headed "Dangerous Talk."

No wiser thing has been said than what is said in this editorial, and if all our people, bankers, business men, capitalists and farmers were to take this same view of the situation, even for a short while, everybody would be happy, cotton would go up, factories would soon be running on full time, and we would again be in the midst of unprecedented prosperity.

I have just returned from a western trip. The farmers out there are having the same kind of trouble over their crop prices that the southern farmers are having over the price of their cotton is bringing.

But, out there they are taking it as a matter of fact, nobody is growing wildly excited about, and business is going along "about as usual."

Down here we have talked ourselves into trouble.

Isn't it about time now for us to solve whatever problem there is in our situation by devoting ourselves to practical business methods rather than by trying to convince the world that the whole south is "in a hell of a fix," when the truth is no section of the world is in as good condition as the south is to-day.

HARRY L. SCHLESINGER, Atlanta, Ga., October 22, 1920.

There is not a sound business concern that cannot get reasonable credit at the banks, and the confidence of the farmers would have been ten times worse than their temporary ailment if it had not been for the wonderful work done by the federal reserve system.

The main trouble about the situation is that too few of the state banks have gone into that system, and the great majority of them have kept out, are devoting too much energy to criticising the federal reserve system which, even to the non-member banks, is the strongest bank in the country.

I have just returned from a western trip. The farmers out there are having the same kind of trouble over their crop prices that the southern farmers are having over the price of their cotton is bringing.

But, out there they are taking it as a matter of fact, nobody is growing wildly excited about, and business is going along "about as usual."

Down here we have talked ourselves into trouble.

Isn't it about time now for us to solve whatever problem there is in our situation by devoting ourselves to practical business methods rather than by trying to convince the world that the whole south is "in a hell of a fix," when the truth is no section of the world is in as good condition as the south is to-day.

HARRY L. SCHLESINGER, Atlanta, Ga., October 22, 1920.

There is not a sound business concern that cannot get reasonable credit at the banks, and the confidence of the farmers would have been ten times worse than their temporary ailment if it had not been for the wonderful work done by the federal reserve system.

The main trouble about the situation is that too few of the state banks have gone into that system, and the great majority of them have kept out, are devoting too much energy to criticising the federal reserve system which, even to the non-member banks, is the strongest

bank in the country.

I have just returned from a western trip. The farmers out there are having the same kind of trouble over their crop prices that the southern farmers are having over the price of their cotton is bringing.

But, out there they are taking it as a matter of fact, nobody is growing wildly excited about, and business is going along "about as usual."

Down here we have talked ourselves into trouble.

Isn't it about time now for us to solve whatever problem there is in our situation by devoting ourselves to practical business methods rather than by trying to convince the world that the whole south is "in a hell of a fix," when the truth is no section of the world is in as good condition as the south is to-day.

HARRY L. SCHLESINGER, Atlanta, Ga., October 22, 1920.

There is not a sound business concern that cannot get reasonable credit at the banks, and the confidence of the farmers would have been ten times worse than their temporary ailment if it had not been for the wonderful work done by the federal reserve system.

The main trouble about the situation is that too few of the state banks have gone into that system, and the great majority of them have kept out, are devoting too much energy to criticising the federal reserve system which, even to the non-member banks, is the strongest

bank in the country.

I have just returned from a western trip. The farmers out there are having the same kind of trouble over their crop prices that the southern farmers are having over the price of their cotton is bringing.

But, out there they are taking it as a matter of fact, nobody is growing wildly excited about, and business is going along "about as usual."

Down here we have talked ourselves into trouble.

Isn't it about time now for us to solve whatever problem there is in our situation by devoting ourselves to practical business methods rather than by trying to convince the world that the whole south is "in a hell of a fix," when the truth is no section of the world is in as good condition as the south is to-day.

HARRY L. SCHLESINGER, Atlanta, Ga., October 22, 1920.

There is not a sound business concern that cannot get reasonable credit at the banks, and the confidence of the farmers would have been ten times worse than their temporary ailment if it had not been for the wonderful work done by the federal reserve system.

The main trouble about the situation is that too few of the state banks have gone into that system, and the great majority of them have kept out, are devoting too much energy to criticising the federal reserve system which, even to the non-member banks, is the strongest

bank in the country.

I have just returned from a western trip. The farmers out there are having the same kind of trouble over their crop prices that the southern farmers are having over the price of their cotton is bringing.

But, out there they are taking it as a matter of fact, nobody is growing wildly excited about, and business is going along "about as usual."

Down here we have talked ourselves into trouble.

Isn't it about time now for us to solve whatever problem there is in our situation by devoting ourselves to practical business methods rather than by trying to convince the world that the whole south is "in a hell of a fix," when the truth is no section of the world is in as good condition as the south is to-day.

HARRY L. SCHLESINGER, Atlanta, Ga., October 22, 1920.

There is not a sound business concern that cannot get reasonable credit at the banks, and the confidence of the farmers would have been ten times worse than their temporary ailment if it had not been for the wonderful work done by the federal reserve system.

The main trouble about the situation is that too few of the state banks have gone into that system, and the great majority of them have kept out, are devoting too much energy to criticising the federal reserve system which, even to the non-member banks, is the strongest

bank in the country.

I have just returned from a western trip. The farmers out there are having the same kind of trouble over their crop prices that the southern farmers are having over the price of their cotton is bringing.

But, out there they are taking it as a matter of fact, nobody is growing wildly excited about, and business is going along "about as usual."

Down here we have talked ourselves into trouble.

Isn't it about time now for us to solve whatever problem there is in our situation by devoting ourselves to practical business methods rather than by trying to convince the world that the whole south is "in a hell of a fix," when the truth is no section of the world is in as good condition as the south is to-day.

HARRY L. SCHLESINGER, Atlanta, Ga., October 22, 1920.

<p

COOLIDGE IS ATTACKED BY SAMUEL GOMPERS

Wilmington, Del., October 22.—An attack on Governor Coolidge, republican vice presidential nominee, based on his actions in the Boston police strike of 1919, was made here today by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Gompers said in an address that after the policemen had left Boston, Governor Coolidge and his police commissioners, knowing full well the city would be unprotected, had recommended Commissioner Curtis. Mr. Gompers said, "after provoking the strike, decided to withhold all police force from the city, leaving it over to the city which would be completely at the mercy of the lawless element for over 14 hours, thereby causing a loss of life, property and casting a stigma upon the policemen who had ceased work."

"HOW WELL YOU LOOK!"

When Your Blood Is Rich and Red People Notice
Your Good Health.

PEPTO-MANGAN BUILDS HEALTH.

Pale Face, Dull Eyes, Drooping Shoulders Result
From Clogged Blood.

If your blood is in bad shape it shows in your looks and feelings. When your blood is rich and red, you look good. Men with red corpuscles in their blood are red, eyes wide open and bright; you good feelings show in your looks.

Common sense will tell you that if weak, thin blood makes you look lifeless, it lowers your vitality. If you have pale, dull eyes, drooping shoulders, result from clogged blood, are able to fight off the germs which bring you illness.

When you feel run down and weak, with no appetite and no ambition, take Pepto-Mangan for a tonic. It is a great blood building tonic. You should begin to feel better within a few days.

Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Take however you prefer, because they have the same medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—Guide. The full name, "Genuine Pepto-Mangan" should be on the package.—(adv.)

GIVE SORE THROAT
QUICK ATTENTION

By Taking Cheney's Expectorant at Once.

The Famous Remedy for Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup and Throat Trouble.

Many diseases of the throat and lungs begin with a slight cough, cold or sore throat. One should never fail to give immediate attention to such symptoms. You never tell what may lead to Cheney's Expectorant is a most effective, quick acting remedy against colds, whooping cough, croup and throat trouble. The exact amount to be taken for each case will be determined by the insurance company only.

Judging Is Ended.

The attendance on Thursday last was 20,281, and admission between the grandstand and between it between $25,000 and $30,000. The spectacular feasts on the track were witnessed by the smallest, but most enthusiastic, audience ever assembled in the grandstand, which has usually been filled to capacity and remarkably quiet. Officials speak in awe and fear when they discuss the splendored weather which has lasted so miraculously through the week. One of the greatest reasons for such length of sunlight might be the fact that a drop of rain is being considered by the insurance company only.

Friday's Attendance.

The attendance on Friday last was 20,281, and admission between the grandstand and between it between $25,000 and $30,000. The spectacular feasts on the track were witnessed by the smallest, but most enthusiastic, audience ever assembled in the grandstand, which has usually been filled to capacity and remarkably quiet. Officials speak in awe and fear when they discuss the splendored weather which has lasted so miraculously through the week. One of the greatest reasons for such length of sunlight might be the fact that a drop of rain is being considered by the insurance company only.

Saturday's Attendance.

The attendance on Saturday last was 20,281, and admission between the grandstand and between it between $25,000 and $30,000. The spectacular feasts on the track were witnessed by the smallest, but most enthusiastic, audience ever assembled in the grandstand, which has usually been filled to capacity and remarkably quiet. Officials speak in awe and fear when they discuss the splendored weather which has lasted so miraculously through the week. One of the greatest reasons for such length of sunlight might be the fact that a drop of rain is being considered by the insurance company only.

Sunday's Attendance.

The attendance on Sunday last was 20,281, and admission between the grandstand and between it between $25,000 and $30,000. The spectacular feasts on the track were witnessed by the smallest, but most enthusiastic, audience ever assembled in the grandstand, which has usually been filled to capacity and remarkably quiet. Officials speak in awe and fear when they discuss the splendored weather which has lasted so miraculously through the week. One of the greatest reasons for such length of sunlight might be the fact that a drop of rain is being considered by the insurance company only.

Cheney's Expectorant clears away the accumulated mucus, soothes the lining of the throat and restores the appetite, making a healthy condition. This has been proven by over thirty years use.

Cheney's Expectorant is taken internally and checked any well developed Cough or Cold, and is a sure relief for Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough and Sore Throat.

Get a bottle today from your druggist. Have it ready for emergency use.—(adv.)

Resinol

for itching tormenting skin troubles

Some day, perhaps, you will try Resinol Ointment. Then the prompt relief that comes from its mild, cooling ingredients will prove to you why so many doctors prescribe it regularly to stop itching and to heal skin troubles like eczema, ringworm, rashes, etc.

You druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Soap.

But for next week, Mrs. Ulric S. Atkinson, president of the Atlanta chapter of the Drama League, wants the Continentals armed. Squirrel rifles are provided, but at a pinch shotgun might be used.

If you can't lend a rifle, see the pageant, anyway. Every man and woman in the grandstand last Saturday will tell you it is one of the most beautiful and spectacular sights that could well be imagined. From the graceful dancing of Atlanta high school girls to the glorious display of pyrotechnics, it's a winner all the way.

Toyland Device.

Out of all the ingenious devices, spectacular exhibitions, and dea-tionary contests, the mounting diamonds to the best possible advantage has always been a problem of the jewelry trade. Diamonds are high in price, and it is important that they be mounted properly and advantageously.

Our new square and octagon topped ring mountings with white gold or platinum bezels make solitaires look much larger than they do in old-style mountings.

The saving in price and the improvement in the looks of the stone is wonderful.

We have the new style mountings in green, and 18-k white gold, platinum tops, and in all platinum.

If you cannot call to see these new mountings, write for our illustrated catalogue.

Resetting diamonds is a specialty with us.

Write for 1921 catalogue and booklet, "Facts About Diamonds."

Maier & Berkele, Inc.

Diamond Merchants

Established 1887

Re-Setting Diamonds

—A Mounting
Problem Solved

Mounting diamonds to the best possible advantage has always been a problem of the jewelry trade. Diamonds are high in price, and it is important that they be mounted properly and advantageously.

Our new square and octagon topped ring mountings with white gold or platinum bezels make solitaires look much larger than they do in old-style mountings.

The saving in price and the improvement in the looks of the stone is wonderful.

We have the new style mountings in green, and 18-k white gold, platinum tops, and in all platinum.

If you cannot call to see these new mountings, write for our illustrated catalogue.

Resetting diamonds is a specialty with us.

Write for 1921 catalogue and booklet, "Facts About Diamonds."

Maier & Berkele, Inc.

Diamond Merchants

Established 1887

31 Whitehall St.

ATLANTA, GA.

Today's Program.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22.
ORGANIZED BOY DAY; SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' DAY.

MORNING

8:30—Admission gates open.
8:30—Cattle, Swine and Poultry buildings open; Automotive Industries; Agricultural
Buildings open.

9:00—Governor's Exhibit; Automotive Industries; Agriculture;
Buildings open.

10:00—Johnny Jones' shows in Larkland, Giant Coaster, Arrest, Circus, Old Mill and Dancing Pavilion open.

10:30—Band Concert at Cattle Bar.

11:00—Address Boys' Fair school,
the International Club Stock Junction, on C. Cobb Boys' Club work—L. W. Hill.

11:30—Grand Concert at Cattle
Bar and Automobile show.

12:00—Band Concert, Sylvan Terrace.

12:30—Opening up heats for Grand Circuit races.

AFTERNOON

1:00—Band Concert, grandstand.

1:15—Opening program of Free Acts in front of grandstand.

1:30—Grand Circuit racing begins.

2:45—Band Concert, Automobile show.

4:30—Band polo.

5:00—Band Concert, Automobile
show.

EVENING

6:00—Band Concert, Sylvan Terrace.

7:00—Johnny J. Jones' shows in Larkland; dancing in the pitch.

7:30—Band Concert, Automobile
building.

8:00—Opening program of Big Horse Free Act in front of the grandstand, including the Four Isha-kawa Boys; Mirano Bros.;
Waiter Stables; John and Paul Smith and Leader; De Phili and De Phili; Ce-vene; Torrell's Circus; the Original Bernards; and auto polo.

9:00—Grand patriotic fireworks.

Noises of Larkland, there is one attractress which claims the interest of the public, and she is not alike more than does any other.
For those between babyhood and maturity there is little appeal. It is "Mrs. Little's Toyland." A miniature fernery, a tiny garden, a tiny table are furnished for the tots to small to be trusted alone upon the larger machines of similar type.

Toddlers boys and girls sit proudly upon the Lilliputian horses, or fearfully rise to the dizzy height of fifteen feet in the baskets of the swing, or of the chair, or slip upon the spinning table. Young boys, whose interest and care for their youthful charges is splendid, offer to the fair who misses the opportunity to watch the expressions of the little ones making their debut in the world, and the world might well return for a second visit.

Between heats of the Grand Circuit races a parade of the prize cows and beef cattle of the cattle show was held in the track before the grandstand. The men included about 100 animals, valued at approximately $500,000, and representing the best breeds of Holstein, Jersey, Herefords, Short Horns, Ayshires, Guernseys. In the procession were a Jersey grand champion cow and Hereford grand champion bull, Fairfax Dale, whose lives were taken for $6,000 each.
One half of the fair value of polices usually taken out by soldiers during the war. Each of these animals are availed at from $25,000 to $35,000.

Parade. The aristocratic parade extended from the grandstand far around the quarter of the track, but could their pedigrees and bovine genealogies be listed on a single sheet of paper it would probably completely encircle the track.

Prominent in the procession was Miss Coger, of Rogersville, Tenn., leading her two super Herefords, which had won out over the entries of professionals.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

Today is the last of the Grand Circuit races. On Monday and Tuesday the last two days of the fair, automobile races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and
glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

On Monday and Tuesday the last two days of the fair, automobile races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and
glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

On Monday and Tuesday the
last two days of the fair, automobile
races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the
south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and
glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

On Monday and Tuesday the
last two days of the fair, automobile
races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the
south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and
glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

On Monday and Tuesday the
last two days of the fair, automobile
races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the
south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and
glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

On Monday and Tuesday the
last two days of the fair, automobile
races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the
south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and
glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

On Monday and Tuesday the
last two days of the fair, automobile
races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the
south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and
glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

On Monday and Tuesday the
last two days of the fair, automobile
races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the
south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the
Lakewood grounds each evening
the Larkland side is brilliant and
glowing with its incandescent atmosphere, and the hills, down beside the lake, a single fire shines out as the bea-

gin of the grand pageant.

On Monday and Tuesday the
last two days of the fair, automobile
races featuring some of the most daring and speediest drivers in the
south will be held in the afternoon.

As night closed down upon the Lakewood grounds

Society

Mrs. Campbell Entertains At Home in Decatur.

Mrs. J. A. Campbell gave a delightful tea on Friday afternoon honoring her sister, Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, Mrs. M. A. Baldwin, and her cousin, Mrs. E. W. Richards. Mrs. Baldwin is a recent bride, being before her marriage, Miss Alice Hammon, of Atlanta.

Mrs. Campbell received her guests wearing gray georgette. Mrs. Maxwell was gowned in white net, and Mrs. Baldwin in a lovely costume of salmon taffeta.

Mrs. Geraldine Goodrow, Mrs. William Alder, and Mrs. John Alder assisted in entertaining. Were Mrs. Fred Gross, Jr., Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. Enges Hardwick, Mrs. E. W. Richards and Miss Addy Everard.

A group of Arnes Scott girls presided at the punch bowl. They were: Miss Geraldine Goodrow, Miss Caroline Morse, Miss Susie Minne, and Miss Margaret Martin. Garden flowers were lavishly used in decorating. One hundred and fifty ladies called during the afternoon.

Rotary President Wins King.

Of broad interest in Atlanta as throughout the country is the announcement of the marriage of Mr. Ernest L. Parker, Portland Oregon, president of the International Rotary clubs, to Miss Rachel King, also of Portland, which took place in Chicago, Tuesday.

Mr. Sneddon, who recently visited the Atlanta Rotary club, is a brother of Mrs. J. A. Campbell, of Decatur.

Mrs. Spiker to Entertain For Drama League Star.

Mrs. William C. Spiker will entertain informally at her home this afternoon in compliment to Mr. Oliver Hinsell, the actor and interpreter of drama, who will read "Babes in Toyland" for the Drama league this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Capital City club.

Mrs. Spiker's tea will follow the reading. Guests will be the officers of the Drama league and the Spiker Players.

S.P.E. Fraternity Entertains.

The S.P.E. fraternity will entertain at a box party this afternoon. The young ladies will include Misses Alice Stringfellow, Elizabeth Goldsmith, Mrs. Anna Torrey, Irene Thomas, Hallie Poole, Ada Phillips, Elizabeth Binford and Ruth Rhoer.

Kaphan-Goldsmith.

Mrs. Ida Kaphan announces the engagement of her daughter, Pauline, to Mr. Albert Goldsmith, of Mt. Airy, N. C. The wedding will take place at an early date. No cards.

Mrs. Benton Entertained.

Mr. Howard Durden gave an informal luncheon on Wednesday complimenting his guest, Mrs. Edith Beldon, of Cedartown. Courses were placed for twelve.

Mrs. Benton at a beautiful tea at the Woman's club, Friday afternoon.

Mr. Howard E. Benton gave an enjoyable theater party Thursday evening at the Atlanta theater in compliment to Mrs. Benton.

Mrs. Walter F. George gave a matinee party Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Benton.

To Miss Setterfield.

Miss Catherine Setterfield, of Macon, who is being delightfully entertained as the guest of Miss Dorothy Bates, was guest of honor at a luncheon yesterday, when Miss Marian Dean and Mrs. Herbert Rawlins, the guests including the attendants and out-of-town guests for their wedding this afternoon.

On Thursday evening Miss Marie Carlton entertained at supper for Miss Satterfield at her home for Miss End.

There were eight guests and the occasion was one of beautiful appointment.

Theater Party.

Miss Lillian Jacobs will entertain at the matinee today at the Atlanta theater in honor of Miss Helen Billingsley, a bride-elect of next Saturday.

Completing the party will be Misses Mary, Miss Nell Chouteau and Miss Catherine Magby, of Columbus, Ohio.

Woman's Club Teas.

Among those entertaining at tea yesterday at the Woman's club were: Mrs. William W. Hinsell; Mrs. D. R. Lane, Mrs. Eugene Wimberly, Mrs. L. A. Dunn, Mrs. W. Alexander and Mrs. J. A. Millsaps.

Miss Betty Andrews to Marry Mr. Joseph Behrens Waters

Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Chattanooga, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Beirne, to Mr. Joseph Behrens Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Jason Waters, of Washington, D. C. The marriage will take place in Chattanooga in the spring, and Mr. Waters and his bride will make their home in New York.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews, though she is still quite young, having made her debut only two years ago, is a distinguished figure in social life, not because of the quaint and patrician beauty, but because of her manner, and a certain charm peculiar to young women who have had the advantages of education and training.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Chattanooga, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Beirne, to Mr. Joseph Behrens Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Jason Waters, of Washington, D. C. The marriage will take place in Chattanooga in the spring, and Mr. Waters and his bride will make their home in New York.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews, though she is still quite young, having made her debut only two years ago, is a distinguished figure in social life, not because of the quaint and patrician beauty, but because of her manner, and a certain charm peculiar to young women who have had the advantages of education and training.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Chattanooga, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Beirne, to Mr. Joseph Behrens Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Jason Waters, of Washington, D. C. The marriage will take place in Chattanooga in the spring, and Mr. Waters and his bride will make their home in New York.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews, though she is still quite young, having made her debut only two years ago, is a distinguished figure in social life, not because of the quaint and patrician beauty, but because of her manner, and a certain charm peculiar to young women who have had the advantages of education and training.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of this engagement will be of widespread interest, especially both north and south, for the bride represents one of the most prominent families in the south, and the groom is of the same prominence in the north, where his family resides.

Miss Andrews' grandmother, Mrs. Andrew, died in 1911, and her mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Ga., one of the leaders of thought and action in the most interesting days in the city.

Her father was Judge Garnett Andrews, youngest daughter of the late Postmaster General Key in the Fosterman cabinet, and his uncle, Commandant Key, died in 1911.

Mr. Waters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters, of Philadelphia, and is a graduate of Yale. He is in the business world.

Miss Andrews' grandfather, Mr. James Garnett Andrews, of New Jersey, was a Miss Cavendish of the well-known polo player and club man. His mother, Mrs. Garnett Andrews, two older sisters reside in Europe.

One is the Princess Pigalle, of the Spanish branch of that noted family, and resides in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews are present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters at their country home, Rumson Road, New Jersey.

The announcement of

ALLEGED FRAMERS INDICTED

Chicago, October 22.—Indictments against thirteen persons believed to have been implicated in the throwing of games in the 1919 world series by Chicago American league players were returned today by a special Cook county grand jury which has been investigating the baseball scandal for more than a month. The indictments charge conspiracy to commit an illegal act. Further indictments are expected when the jury reconvenes next week, the state's attorneys office said:

Indictments against ten of the men named today previously had been voted, but were revoked to overcome legal technicalities. The other three, Abe Attell, Hal Chase and William Burns, had only been unofficially mentioned in connection with the investigation.

Chase and Burns, former major league players, and Attell, once the featherweight boxing champion of the world, have been accused by witnesses of being three of a clique which "framed" the world series and arranged to bribe White Sox players for sums said to range from $2,000 to $10,000 to try to lose the games, it was announced for the world's baseball championship.

Betting Was Heavy.

According to testimony presented, at least several hundred thousand dollars' worth was bet and won on the world series. Chase was the first to suggest the scheme, it was said, in the others to help him. Harry Long, a Chicagoan, told the jury he alone received $27,000 in bets on Cleveland for "Sport," Sullivan, of Boston. Testimony has been received concerning many other large bets, it was said.

Besides Chase, Attell and Burns, today's indictments covered two alleged gamblers, Sullivan and a man known to the jury as "Brown," and the eight players owned by the Chicago American league club.

Some of them had come to the courtroom, and all had ceased, and those who haven't laid their wagers at this time stand a fairly good chance to furnish the landlord a good purse with a few more wagers.

Besides Chase, Attell and Burns, today's indictments covered two alleged gamblers, Sullivan and a man known to the jury as "Brown," and the eight players owned by the Chicago American league club.

Early last night the report that every available seat in Forbes field had been sold was received, and the visitors making their debut at the William Penn hotel this morning announced that they will fight the case and contest the suspension placed on all eight players by Owner Charles A. Comiskey.

TECH HIGH WINS GAME FROM A. & M.

BY J. LAUREN CLARK.

In one of the hardest fought games played recently, Tech High beat the fast Monogram team by a 34-to-0 score yesterday, on Grant field. The game was an edge for the fast Monogram team, and the result was that at least a third of this total had passed through the Shephey hotel to get a glimpse of the game, and the spectators were informed by Pittsburgh scribes that there is a little more than he did last year, which was plenty, we are informed by Pittsburgh scribes.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

From the first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year, according to the dogged ones, related to drop the game by some where around 50 points. By outstanding visitors in every department of the game, however, the Smithies turned the tables.

The Argies were cracked up as hard as the Monogram team, and the game started. Judging from their past games and their size, it looked as if the winning team would take the game, but over one touch down.

The first whistle, the Smithies had it all over the Monogram team. They soon scored when they took the field, and Tech High had the game won before his opponents knew it. The game was in full swing, and his men will score again.

The old dogged one of the world's old dogs, the Tech High, has received this year

THE CONSTITUTION'S FINANCIAL NEWS AND REVIEWS

EDITED BY W.A.HUGGINS

New High Ground Made In Cotton for Past Week

RANGE IN NEW YORK COTTON.

	Open	High	Low	Close	Prev. Close
Oct. 22	18.95	19.00	18.95	19.15	18.80
Dec. 19.50	19.64	18.90	19.25	19.97	18.85
Jan. 19.50	19.01	18.90	19.78	18.90	18.85
Mar. 19.50	19.85	19.85	19.80	19.85	18.85
May 19.70	19.72	19.70	19.55	19.78	18.75

Closed steady.

no additional notices were issued. Reports of further rains in the southwest may have contributed to the advance, but were not prominent in the market. Port receipts today, 25,163; United States port stocks, 1,043,595. Exports, 23,855, making 793,384 so far this season.

SPOTS IN NEW YORK.
New York, October 22.—Cotton, spot, quiet; middling, 21.00.

COTTON ADVANCES OVER $6 PER BALE

New York, October 22.—The cotton market made the expected recovery, cotton stocks making new high ground for the week-end movement during today's trading. December contracts led the advance, as well as 20 cent or 11 cent above the closing price of yesterday, and 23 cents above the low record of last Monday. That delivery closed at 19.97 with the general list closing steady, a net advance of 55 to 101 points.

The feature was the unexpected strength of the Liverpool market, which had been reported at that point and the persistent buying by houses with Liverpool connections around the local ring. First price was up 1 cent, an increase of 45 to 95 points above the low record of the English market, which was accompanied by satisfied cables reporting an improved demand from Manchester, and optimism to the prospects for a early settled ment of the labor troubles.

After showing gains of about 70 to 100 points the market eased off 20 or 30 points from the best recorded. Sellers were inclined to emphasize the small sales of cotton in the market in the River market for the weekend and numerous reports of mill curtailment, but offerings were not heavy and the market was held down during the afternoon on a continuation of Liverpool buying and reports of an improving trade demand. January sold at 19.90 and March at 19.95, all active months showing net gains of 95 to 119 points. The close was a few points off from the best under realizing.

On October 21, the market without showing any further feature, and so far as could be learned

Cotton Region Bulletin.

Atlanta, Ga.—For the 24 hours ending at 8 a. m., 75th meridian time, October 22, 1920.

STATIONS OF ATLANTA, GA.	High	Low	Temperature.	Relative humidity and wind.
Atlanta, clear	75	60	70°	50% SSW
Columbus, clear	79	53	70°	50% SW
Gainesville, clear	84	57	70°	50% SW
Hartford, clear	84	57	70°	50% SW
Monticello, clear	83	56	70°	50% SW
Newnan, clear	85	69	70°	50% SW
Phenix City, clear	82	54	70°	50% SW
Tallapoosa, clear	79	55	70°	50% SW
West Point, clear	80	55	70°	50% SW
Winder, clear	79	45	70°	50% SW
District average	81	55

Summary for the Cotton Region States. New Orleans, October 22.—Little change in temperatures occurred during the last 24 hours, with the heat weather in the western and central portions of the belt and partly on a much better feeling in the spot department. The arrival of the English tonnage of English dispatches regarding labor trouble. Most private cables took the view that the coal strike would be short, and that the coal would be shipped to the English ports. Light scattered showers occurred at a few stations in the western portions of Louisiana and Arkansas and in southeastern Georgia—Chincoteague.

Maximum temperatures are for 12 hours period ending at 4 p. m. a. m. 75th meridian time. Lowest for 24 hours, ending 8 a. m., 75th meridian time, except where otherwise indicated.

Note.—The "weather" section is at the time of the time of realization.

C. F. V. HERMANN,
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

Cottoned Cotton.

Liverpool, October 22.—Cotton, spot, fair business done 10% higher. Good middling, 18.45; fully middling, 17.23; middling, 15.75; 10% middling, 11.63; good ordinary, 9.85; ordinary, 7.95; Sales, 5,000 bales included 7,500 American. Futures closed 10,000 American. Futures closed for yesterday, with the closing quotations of yesterday, with December at 14.84; May, 14.66; July, 14.01; September, 14.15.

Cotton Seed Oil.

New York, October 22.—After being held down by the slump in lard, cotton seed oil firms up on local short covering and little support from the south. Sales of 10,000 bbls. per day in the River market for the weekend and numerous reports of mill curtailment, but offerings were not heavy and the market was held down during the afternoon on a continuation of Liverpool buying and reports of an improving trade demand. January sold at 19.90 and March at 19.95, all active months showing net gains of 95 to 119 points. The close was a few points off from the best under realizing.

On October 21, the market without showing any further feature, and so far as could be learned showed no gains of 107 to 120 points.

Too much rain fell over a considerable portion of the belt, reviving claims that a good part of this crop will be held up by lack of market. Performances were light all day. Active markets closed 15 to 20 points higher. Sales, 8,800 bales included 10,000 American. Futures closed 7,500 American. Futures closed for yesterday, with December at 14.84; May, 14.66; July, 14.01; September, 14.15.

Sea Island Cotton.

Savannah, Ga., October 22.—Sea Islands: Market nominal; quotations omitted; per pound; receipts, 1; shipments, 5; stock, 1,867; crop in sight, 9,697.

SCOPE WIDENING IN READJUSTMENT,
MOVIES SAY DUN'S REPORT

New York, October 22.—Dun's to-morrow will say:

Widening of the scope of the economic readjustment which began some time ago is unmistakably reflected in reports from practically every industry and trade of importance in the different statistical barometers that indicate the trend of conditions. After a period of unprecedented expansion and inflation, due to unnatural stimulus, business has returned to normal, and the market reaction, with varying degrees of unsettlement and embarrassment accompanying the transition.

For the first time since the low levels of last year, failures have abruptly in both number and magnitude, showing that many of the bank spots are coming to the surface and liquidations still being forced in not a few instances by the sharply curtailed consuming power and restrictions on bank accommodation.

Skeptical establishment as to genuineness of the downward price movement has been dispelled by the progress of events in many other markets, and evidence accumulates that the declines are extending to the retail counters where clearance sales remain a conspicuous feature.

Forsythe Theater—Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Four Men in a Tandem, King of the Rockbirds, and other screen features.

Strand Theater—All week. Gloria Swanson and the Melancholy of Change, Why Change Your Wife? and other screen features.

Holiday Theater—All week. Diamonds Are Forever, Madame X, and other screen features.

Lyric Theater—(Keith Vaudeville). See adv. for program.

Loew's Grand (Vaudeville and Pictures)—See adv. for program.

WOMAN IS ACCUSED OF PLATINUM THEFT

New York, October 22.—Florence Weller, who, according to the federal authorities, recently was indicted in Nashville, Tenn., on a charge of conspiracy to dispose of $19,000 worth of platinum stolen from the army's ordnance warehouse, was arrested here today by federal agents.

The woman was taken to department of justice headquarters and questioned by Chief William J. Flynn.

According to federal agents, the woman came from the west and during the winter was worth more than $500,000. The platinum later was sold to jewelers in this and other cities.

It is alleged that Florence Weller was implicated in the theft of 168 ounces. Several men were said to have been in touch with her.

Florence Weller, when arraigned before a federal commissioner, was held in $5,000 bail for hearing next Tuesday. She refused to make a statement.

Amusement Directory THEATERS

Atlanta Theater—Today (matinee and night). The merry musical play, "Buddies."

Lyric Theater (Keith Vaudeville). See adv. for program.

Loew's Grand (Vaudeville and Pictures)—See adv. for program.

THOMAS BROWN DIES AT CINCINNATI HOME

Newspaper received in Atlanta. News of the death in Cincinnati of Thomas Brown, a prominent business man of that city, who formerly lived in Atlanta, died yesterday morning at his home in Cincinnati. He was connected with the Burt Auditing Company of Cincinnati. When in Atlanta he was connected with the American Audit company. He was well-known in Atlanta.

Wesley Memorial Auditorium Oct. 26, 26, 27. HAROLD BACHMAN and HIS MILLION DOLLAR BAND

Under the auspices and for benefit of the AMERICAN LEGION

Music world coming miles to hear. All tickets $1.00—no higher. Tickets now at Cable Photo Co., Hilliard & Crew and Lauder & Bates.

Last Opportunity to Purchase SEASON TICKETS for the . . .

All-Star Concert Series SALE CLOSES SATURDAY

Titta Ruffo
Galli-Curci
Zimbalist
Schumann-Heink
Rosa Ponselle
Josef Hofmann

Prices: $4.50, $6.00, $7.50, $9.00

Sale at Cable Piano Co.

Even-Setter

Musical Bazaar

THEATERS

ATLANTA THEATER TODAY AT 2:30

THE MUSICAL ROMANCE

'BUDDIES'

ALL WEEK COMMING MONDAY OCT. 25

MATINEE WED. AND SAT.

R. H. Price Presents

CARLYLE BLACKWELL

IN PERSON

In the Latest Comedy Success

"My Lady Friends"

Nights & Sat. Mat. 80¢ to 35

Special Wed. Mat. 80¢ to $1.50

SEATS NOW ON SALE

4:30PM-7:30PM-9:15PM

FADS & FANCIES Musical Comedy Gem.

OTHER KEITH HITS.

CHATTOOGA-COUNTY FAIR IN FULL BLAST

Lively, Ga., October 22. (Special).—The Chattooga County fair opened Thursday morning in Summerville for their annual exhibition. Hon. Wright Willingham, of the opening day. United States Senator Hoke Smith is scheduled for an address Friday morning. Considered collectively, the exhibits are good.

Revd. R. H. Barber, from New York, on this subject, at the Cable Bible Students' Association.

FREE—AND NO COLLECTION

4:30PM-7:30PM-9:15PM

FADS & FANCIES Musical Comedy Gem.

OTHER KEITH HITS.

LYRIC KEITH VAUDEVILLE

2:30PM-7:30PM-9:15PM

FADS & FANCIES Musical Comedy Gem.

OTHER KEITH HITS.

THE WORLD HAS ENDED; Millions Now Living Will Never Die"

Revd. R. H. Barber, from New York, on this subject, at the Cable Bible Students' Association.

FREE—AND NO COLLECTION

4:30PM-7:30PM-9:15PM

FADS & FANCIES Musical Comedy Gem.

OTHER KEITH HITS.

THE WORLD HAS ENDED; Millions Now Living Will Never Die"

Revd. R. H. Barber, from New York, on this subject, at the Cable Bible Students' Association.

FREE—AND NO COLLECTION

4:30PM-7:30PM-9:15PM

FADS & FANCIES Musical Comedy Gem.

OTHER KEITH HITS.

THE WORLD HAS ENDED; Millions Now Living Will Never Die"

Revd. R. H. Barber, from New York, on this subject, at the Cable Bible Students' Association.

FREE—AND NO COLLECTION

4:30PM-7:30PM-9:15PM

COOLIDGE IS CHEERED BY VIRGINIA VOTERS

Richmond, Va., October 22.—An enthusiastic audience which crowded the auditorium to the doors tonight acclaimed Governor Coolidge, of Massachusetts, republican candidate for vice president, with crash upon crash of applause in an address in which he appealed for the upholding of the tariff and for support of Senator Harding.

The appearance of the vice presidential candidate upon the platform of Governor Lowden of Illinois, Governor Morrow of Kentucky, and Job Hedges of New York, was the signal for a roar of applause and one which was repeated at frequent intervals as a made point upon point in his address.

Governor Morrow, in a bitter attack upon the league of nations, was received with a storm of applause. Other speakers were Governor Lowden and Mr. Hedges. Colonel Henry W. Anderson of this city pre-dicted victory.

The governor entered the state on his special train early today from North Carolina, where a similar press conference was held yesterday, and addressed attentive audiences at an indoor meeting at Danville and from the rear platform at South Boston and Keyesville. He left right to continue his campaign of Virginia tomorrow at Staunton, the birthplace of President Wilson, and will not leave the state until after noon when he will cross West Virginia.

Governor Coolidge, in his auditorium address, appealed to Virginians to support him in his bid for the republican candidate for president, because of his insistence on maintaining the principles of the fathers. "Your whole history shows," he said, "that it is the purpose of America to remain forever free and independent. Do not let us shut yourselves in nor put us back again. You are determined that only an American government shall govern America."

He referred to Virginia and Massachusetts as "the cornerstones of American enterprise and American achievement," and paused "to express the sympathy of the republican party to President Wilson in his illness, and to express the hope of his speedy and complete recovery."

In his speeches today Governor Coolidge urged a "return to the people's government" and constitutional government," preached Americanism, and denounced the administration for alleged extravagance. Rear platform speeches were also made by Governor Lowden and Morrow, who, with Mr. Hedges, also spoke at tonight's meeting.

The speaking tour of border and southern states by Governor Coolidge will end tomorrow night at Frederick. During the day stops will be made at Staunton, Harrisonburg, Waynesboro, and Winchester, Pa., Martinsburg, W. Va., and Hagerstown, Md.

Home in America Offered to Pope If Italy Erupts

Rome Paper Says Columbus Knights Made Offer to Pope, But Supreme Knight Denies—America Tamed "Papacy's Hope."

Rome, October 22.—As a result of the war, the chief sources of the vatican's income, represented by Bavarian, Austria, Belgium and France, became so impoverished that Pope Benedict was obliged to appeal to Spain, Latin America and the United States, declared The Giornale d'Italia, in an article under the caption of "America, the Papacy's Hope."

The newspaper adds that when Monsignor Bonaventure Cerruti, under-secretary of state at the vatican, went to America to attend the golden jubilee of Cardinal Gibbons, his report was circulated that he had gone with the object of negotiating a loan of $1,000,000 for the holy see. In reality, however, his object was to collect $1,000,000 from the American Catholics.

Monsignor Cerruti, the newspaper declares, appealed to the Knights of Columbus, an organization having nearly 1,000,000 members, and which could easily raise the funds required. The delegation of knights, which recently came to Rome, is said to have offered Pope Benedict $250,000, promising the remainder, which, perhaps, might even exceed $1,000,000.

"Besides," says the Journal, "the knights gave the pope to understand that if grave troubles should arise in Italy, he could find protection and hospitality in America."

After Rome was occupied by Italian troops in 1870, a French army invaded the country, plus four years at Civita Vecchia, and the knights said that in the event of a new crisis, an American ship would take a similar position."

Monkey Was Used
In Plot to Kill
King of Greece

Monkey Was Inoculated
With Germ of Rabies
and Then Turned Loose on Alexander.

Rome, October 22.—Injuries inflicted upon King Alexander by a monkey were the result of a plot to assassinate the young monarch according to Dr. Georges Fernand Vidal, of Paris, who has been attending the king, and was interviewed by The Messenger, while passing through Rome on his way home from Athens.

"While the story of the monkey biting King Alexander was true," Dr. Vidal is quoted as saying, "The monkey was suffering from rables with which it had been artificially inoculated. Hence, a veritable attempt against the king's life was committed."

CONDITION OF KING
NOT SATISFACTORY.

Athens, October 22.—King Alexander of Greece was resting easily last night, according to a bulletin issued by his physicians at 11 p. m. The king at that hour was in a calm sleep. His temperature was 32.9 Centigrade (102.56 Fahrenheit).

The reports regarding the king's condition, however, were not considered at all satisfactory. His temperature, it was stated, had shown disquieting fluctuations.

The bulletin issued at 7 o'clock last evening said the king had spent a restless day and that his temperature was then 104, with pulse of 136 to 150 and respiration of 40 to 48. The day had brought about no improvement in his condition, it was added.

In Yonkers.

(From Cartoons Magazine.) Husband rather vividly conscious of the bathing beauties loitering about the beach, the caption reads: "What perfect malice!" Spouse: "John Henry, come home with me this minute."

Dresden is soon to have an institute for the development of the scientific study of "color" and the adaptation of the results of the research for industrial purposes.

More than 150 carloads of electrical equipment have been shipped from the United States to fit up two great central power stations under construction near Bombay, India.

Georgia Editors Are Guests of Fair

Group of Georgia newspapermen attending the Southeastern fair Friday. J. Kelly Simmons, president of the Georgia Press association and editor of the Telfair Enterprise, is shown standing fifth from the right in the second row. J. E. Whitman, a former president of the organization, is the ninth figure on second row, standing between two ladies.

Menaced by Reds, U.S. Judge Landis Hurls a Defiance

Warned to Keep Mouth Shut, Judge Answers by Hoping for Long Life to Be Devoted to Fighting the Reds.

Indianapolis, Ind., October 22.—A few minutes prior to his address here before the Indiana state convention of school teachers today, Federal Judge K. M. Landis received an anonymous note threatening to expose him if he continued his attacks on the radical movement in America. The Judge referred to the note at the beginning of his address and declared that it was the attitude of the radicals during the war that was responsible for the fact that the bodies of thousands of American soldiers lie in France.

The note, unsigned, typewritten on business stationery, was addressed to him at the hotel where he is staying and was delivered by mail. It said:

"For the last time you are warned to keep your d—d mouth shut concerning charges that you have made against 'radical' movements in speeches in Chicago and other towns in which you have spoken."

Judge Landis, in referring to the note, said:

"My sole hope at this hour is that I may live out my life in full, about thirty years more, so that I may fight the treasonable crowd of men who planned and supported the St. Louis platform of the socialist party. The socialist did not omit one opportunity to embarrass the government and intended to omit not one opportunity of calling it to the attention of the people."

Judge Landis criticized both the men who termed their evasion of vital election issues. Both the democratic and the republican parties, Judge Landis said, had adopted platforms regarding important questions.

The only specific complaint Judge Landis made was that "another has said what he will do as affecting legislation that will give life to the prohibition amendment."

The newspaper adds that when Monsignor Bonaventure Cerruti, under-secretary of state at the vatican, went to America to attend the golden jubilee of Cardinal Gibbons, his report was circulated that he had gone with the object of negotiating a loan of $1,000,000 for the holy see. In reality, however, his object was to collect $1,000,000 from the American Catholics.

Monsignor Cerruti, the newspaper declares, appealed to the Knights of Columbus, an organization having nearly 1,000,000 members, and which could easily raise the funds required. The delegation of knights, which recently came to Rome, is said to have offered Pope Benedict $250,000, promising the remainder, which, perhaps, might even exceed $1,000,000.

"Besides," says the Journal, "the knights gave the pope to understand that if grave troubles should arise in Italy, he could find protection and hospitality in America."

Monkey Was Used
In Plot to Kill
King of Greece

Monkey Was Inoculated
With Germ of Rabies
and Then Turned Loose on Alexander.

Rome, October 22.—Injuries inflicted upon King Alexander by a monkey were the result of a plot to assassinate the young monarch according to Dr. Georges Fernand Vidal, of Paris, who has been attending the king, and was interviewed by The Messenger, while passing through Rome on his way home from Athens.

"While the story of the monkey biting King Alexander was true," Dr. Vidal is quoted as saying, "The monkey was suffering from rables with which it had been artificially inoculated. Hence, a veritable attempt against the king's life was committed."

CONDITION OF KING
NOT SATISFACTORY.

Athens, October 22.—King Alexander of Greece was resting easily last night, according to a bulletin issued by his physicians at 11 p. m. The king at that hour was in a calm sleep. His temperature was 32.9 Centigrade (102.56 Fahrenheit).

The reports regarding the king's condition, however, were not considered at all satisfactory. His temperature, it was stated, had shown disquieting fluctuations.

The bulletin issued at 7 o'clock last evening said the king had spent a restless day and that his temperature was then 104, with pulse of 136 to 150 and respiration of 40 to 48. The day had brought about no improvement in his condition, it was added.

In Yonkers.

(From Cartoons Magazine.) Husband rather vividly conscious of the bathing beauties loitering about the beach, the caption reads: "What perfect malice!" Spouse: "John Henry, come home with me this minute."

Dresden is soon to have an institute for the development of the scientific study of "color" and the adaptation of the results of the research for industrial purposes.

The Bible has been translated into the national language of the Chinese in a form said to be the most nearly perfect literary production in the Chinese republic.

Americus to Fight Proposed Increase In Lighting Rates

Americus, Ga., October 22.—(Special.)—The Americus city council last night unanimously adopted a resolution to employ an executive to assist the commissioners opposing the application of the Americus Lighting company for increased gas and electric rates here.

The company had recently secured more than a 10 per cent. increase, and city officials who are earnestly opposed to further raises being allowed them decided to hire an executive to oppose the lighting company on behalf of the citizens.

Heretofore, according to W. T. Lane, city attorney, the lighting company had been before the railroad commission with a carefully prepared statement, backed up by their experts, whereas the city had been before the commission on different grounds than the usual protest.

Heretofore, according to W. T. Lane, city attorney, the lighting company had been before the railroad commission with a carefully prepared statement, backed up by their experts, whereas the city had been before the commission on different grounds than the usual protest.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

It has been reported for some time that the Willingham case would be laid before the grand jury with a view to securing a criminal indictment in connection with the alleged manipulation of the affairs of the Willingham company.

